

Move over!

STOUFFVILLE — In the Percheron class, there's a new kid on the block. Bill Hassard, R.R. 3, Stouffville, is making a name for himself even among the elite of Royal Winter Fair circles.

In recent competition, he scored a fifth in the Brood Mare Class, Foaled Prior to Jan. 1, 1980 and a sixth in the class for Yeld Mares, Foaled Prior to Jan. 1, 1980.

Donamerr Farms Limited of R.R. 4, Uxbridge, added to their showcase of awards. Owner Don Tribbling placed fifth in the class for Two-Horse Teams; fourth with a Filly Foaled in 1982; and fourth with a Mare Foaled in 1980.

Lorne Brethour of Sunderland was fourth in the class for Stallions Foaled in 1982.

Town artist's exhibition draws praise

Stouffville artist, John G. Roberts, was in attendance at the opening of his exhibition of water colors and oil paintings, Friday, at Gallery Gabor Ltd., 602 Markham Street, Toronto. His work drew praise from visitors, including this painting of Headford

United Church on Leslie Street. The exhibition will continue until Dec. 4. Mr Roberts is the art instructor on staff at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.
