

Lucky to be alive

Twenty-six-year-old David Maschke of Oshawa is taken to a waiting ambulance by attendants Cathy Bell (left) of Markham and Ross Anderson of Richmond Hill following a spectacular accident at the intersection of Hwy. 47 and the Bloomington Road, Nov. 23. Maschke was the operator of a truck, (background), carrying 40 tons of gravel, that struck a grain-carrier, loaded with corn. The transport overturned but the driver suffered only minor injuries. Operator of the farm tractor, pulling the grain-carrier was Kevin Davis, R.R. 2, Uxbridge. He was en route to the St. Lawrence Grain Ltd. plant on the Uxbridge Townline.
