

Claremont residents organize winter carnival for community

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — The Claremont Winter Recreation Committee held a general meeting last Wednesday and will meet again today (Nov. 30) at 8 p.m. in the community hall. A winter carnival is planned for January 28, 1984 and all interested people are invited to attend this meeting. A number of great ideas and events are in the works. Supervisors are also needed for skating at the sports pad. Two hours a week is all the time that is required. If you can help out please call Peter Gillespie at 649-3062 or Carolyn Evans at 649-2438. Also planned is organized hockey for boys and girls.
 Don't forget the Lions Annual Christmas Concert on Sunday, Dec. 4 at 2 p.m.
 Tickets are still available for the Lions dance on Saturday, Dec. 3 to help purchase a photocopier for the school. Rick Johnson will provide the music. A buffet will also be served. Tickets are $15 a couple. For more information, contact the school or Frank Hill at 649-2553 or Al Redshaw at 649-2342. The Lions and Lioness "Decorate Your House Contest" is on again this year. Judging will take place before Christmas.

 The Legion Turkey Roll will be held Friday, Dec. 9. The Legion Christmas Party for member's children will be held Sunday, Dec. 18 at 1:30 p.m.
 This is your last chance to order pies before Christmas. The Lioness Club will take orders for apple, cherry, blueberry, or fresh huckleberry pies to be delivered before Dec. 15. The cost is $4 a pie. Contact Denise Norton at 649-2615 or Ann Jones at 649-2603.
 Claremont Public School are holding a book fair this week. New paperback and hard-covered books will be on sale in the school library all day Thursday, Dec. 1 and in the morning Dec. 2. The average cost of each book is $2.50. Anyone wishing to donate used paperbacks to the Claremont Public School Library, are asked to contact Mrs. Poyser at the school — 649-2000. The books should be in good condition and suitable content and reading level for a public school students. This would greatly benefit all students by increasing the amount of reading material available to them. These books are for the school only, not to be confused with the book fair.

 A white gift service was held at the Claremont United Church Sunday, Nov. 27. The service was conducted by the Sunday school. A tree trimming party will be held in the Sunday school Saturday, Dec. 3
