

Nineteen-year-old Roxanne Greenhalgh of R.R. 1, Claremont, established athletic records at Uxbridge High that still stand. Roxanne is now attending Toronto University in a Physical and Health Education Course. —Jim Thomas

“Girl Next Door”

Champion athlete

CLAREMONT — Some excellent athletes have graduated through the ranks of Uxbridge Secondary School. Few, however, will surpass or even equal the athletic accomplishments of Roxanne Greenhalgh, now a first-year student in Physical and Health Education at Toronto University.

Roxanne's our “Girl Next Door”.

Almost as far back as Roxanne can remember, sports has been a prime interest. She was Girls' Athletic Champion at Joseph Gould Sr. Public School, (Grade 8) and a Jr. and Sr. title-holder in Grades 10 and 13 at U.S.S. Records she established in the 100 and 200 meters still stand.

In team competition, volleyball was a favorite.

Roxanne's endeavors didn't start and stop with sports. She was a four-year honors' student, receiving her coveted Letter 'U' in Grade 12. Art and French were favored subjects.

Roxanne and her parents, Alex and Isabel Greenhalgh, moved to R.R. 1, Claremont from Scarborough seven years ago. Roxanne has three older sisters, Susan, Brenda and Jenny.

Although she enjoys the relative quiet of country living, (old Hwy. 47), Roxanne also appreciates “the hustle and bustle” of suburbia. Both locations have their benefits, she says.

Roxanne has travelled extensively including coast-to-coast in Canada; California, Florida and South Carolina in the United States. She participated in an Ontario-Quebec student exchange while a student in Grade 11.

Roxanne's goal in life is to serve as an instructor at a fitness club or recreation centre.
