

Carnival time

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT—Plans for the upcoming winter carnival, Friday, Jan. 27 and Saturday, Jan. 28, are underway. The next meeting of the Winter Carnival Committee will be at the park Thursday, Jan. 12 at 8 p.m. There are certain requirements which must be met for the Snow Queen contest. Anyone entering must be a high school student living in Claremont or within the Claremont mail delivery (R.R. 1, 2, or 3). For further information contact Andrea Graham at 649-2604. Anyone still wishing to help please attend the next meeting.

The Claremont Legion New Years Eve party was well attended. Winner of the raffle was Ray Uzzell. The door prize was donated by Dawn Flint of Claremont and formerly of Willowdale Artisans. Dawn is a tapestry artist and donated a beautiful hand woven cushion that was won by Bill Hammond.

Downhill skiing through Claremont Public School will begin Friday, Jan. 27 at Dagmar.

Congratulations to Don and Wendy Hockley on the birth of their daughter Lindsey Erin born at Port Perry Hospital on Tuesday, Jan. 3. Since Lindsey was the first girl born in 1984, she was presented with a cabbage patch doll.

Happy Birthday wishes go out to Hazel Sanderson a resident of Parkview Nursing Home in Stouffville who celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday Monday, Jan. 9. To help celebrate her birthday Mrs. Sanderson's two daughters, Joan Childs of Oshawa and Thelma Hockley of Claremont, treated her to dinner out.

Sympathy is extended to Alice Linstead of Port Perry and to her daughter Iida and family on the sudden passing of Rev. Eldon Linstead. Mr. Linstead was pastor at Claremont United Church until his retirement and at that time took up residence in Port Perry.

A plenum heater will dramatically cut the cost of heating your home.

Adding an electric plenum heater to your furnace can cut oil consumption by up to 75% and dramatically reduce your overall heating bill. And a COSP (Canada Oil Substitution Program) grant plus assistance worth $200 from Hydro, will in most cases reduce the cost of installing a 9 kilowatt plenum heater to less than $500 (plus tax on the COSP grant).
