

Surgery for sabre-toothed rabbit

Jim Ryan of Ryan's Boarding Kennels, R.R. 4, Stouffville, shelters many types of animals, some brought to him and some he picks up himself. One of the most unusual in recent months was a sabre-toothed rabbit, with curved fangs protruding from both sides and the top of its mouth. Mr Ryan showed compassion towards the little fellow and had the teeth removed so it could return once again to normal eating habits.
