

John Wannags Honored on 90th birthday

John Wannags, 295 Stouffer Street North, Stouffville, holds one of the many cards he received, last week, on the occasion of his 90th birthday. Born in East Prussia, Mr and Mrs Wannags have lived in Stouffville since 1965. Mr Wannags was honored Sunday at a gathering attended by members of his family and close friends. —Jim Thomas Stouffer St.

STOUFFVILLE—In an age-guessing competition, John Wannags of 295 Stouffer Street North, Stouffville, would surely stump the experts.

Mr Wannags marked his 90th birthday, Jan. 12. He could pass for sixty-five.

To celebrate this milestone, a gathering of family friends and relatives was held Sunday afternoon. Present for the occasion was wife Katharine; two daughters, Ruth of Fenelon Falls and Hildegard of Markham; four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. An honored guest was Rev. G. E. Griebing of Willowdale, pastor of First Lutheran Church, Bond Street, Toronto.

Born in East Prussia, Mr and Mrs Wannags came to Canada in 1951, and to Stouffville in 1965. John has never spent a single day in hospital. He enjoys reading. The Bible's his favorite book.

The Tribune joins neighbors on Stouffer Street and friends in Stouffville in wishing Mr Wannags many more years of health and happiness.

Legion Hall

Kinsmen plan bingos

STOUFFVILLE — Beginning Jan. 25, Wednesday night will be Bingo Night at the Stouffville Legion Hall.

The games, held weekly, are sponsored by the Stouffville Kinsmen Club. Starting time is 7 p.m.

Approximately $450 in cash prizes will be given away. Two hundred players can be accommodated.

Proceeds from these events will be shared between the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund; the Whitechurch-Stouffville Rec. Centre Fund and other community projects.
