Discounts pay dividends

STOFFVILLE — The discount service for senior citizens is enjoying amazing success, thanks mainly to the work of Claremont's Frank Jenkinson and a committee of enthusiastic supporters.

To date, more than 2,000 seniors, (60 years and over), have signed up. Close to 400 merchants are involved including 110 in Oshawa; 38 each in Stouffville and Uxbridge; 25 at Sheridan Mall, Pickering; 20 in Pickering Village and 15 each at Ajax and Whitby.

To qualify, all a senior must do is produce an identification card. These are made available at a cost of $2.00. Registrations are held every Wednesday at the Pickering Village Drop-In Centre, rear of the Court House. In Stouffville, arrangements can be made through Betty Courage, secretary of Home Support Services at the Silver Jubilee Club, Main Street.

A minimum of 50 people are required for a photo session. Each identification card carries a picture of the holder.

The program represents three years of work, Mr Jenkinson said, all of it volunteer. Discounts range from five to twenty per cent.
