

Require drivers

By WIN NAPIER
Home Support Services requires additional volunteer drivers if the service is to function as efficiently in the future as it has in the past.

At the January meeting of the Home Support Board, Co-ordinator Betty Courage reported that during the month of December, seniors requested twice as many rides as in the previous year.

Mrs. Courage said she was hard-pressed to fill all the orders, and while December is the busiest month of the year, she told Board members she expects the over-all demand to increase steadily as more and more come into the program, either because of age or because Stouffville is a popular retirement location.

The Board has decided on a campaign of advertising, using brochures as well as The Tribune to attract volunteers.

A volunteer driver is compensated for his expenses and may choose to drive as much or as little as he (she) wishes. There are currently about 17 active volunteer drivers, in addition to High School students. Seniors regularly request transportation for medical appointments, hair-dressing appointments, shopping and other needs.

A good recovery

By Evelyn Milsted
GORMLEY — Friends will be pleased to know that Robert Cornes is making good progress. He's now taking therapy at Riverdale Hospital, Toronto, and able to come home on weekends.

The Youth Group will meet at the Gormley Missionary Church at 6:30 p.m. Saturday and enjoy a toboggan party at the Atkinson farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise spent a week with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Doug Wightman and girls in Killarney, Manitoba.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Winger enjoyed Sunday dinner with Rev. and Mrs. Marlin Ressler.

Irene Olszewski has been admitted to Scarborough Hospital for tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nigh of Toronto spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise.

What a smell!

The harmless looking object held in Gary Fisher's left hand, forced an evacuation of the Stouffville Post Office, Thursday morning. Sulphur gas, that spread through the building, came from a battery that had been attached to a hot-air balloon. In mailing the container back, the finder neglected to detach the battery. The gas began leaking out from the Post Office receiver chute. Full story on Page A-1.

—Jim Thomas.

Collision

STOUFFVILLE—A Stouffville motorist suffered three broken ribs and a fractured shoulder, Friday, when her eastbound stationwagon veered off the road following collision; and hit a tree.

Betty Jarvis, Loretta Crescent, was eastbound on 19th Avenue, west of Conc. 10 when the accident occurred. Her vehicle, a 1980 Ford, was demolished.

Driver of the other car was Clarke Forster of Willowdale. His 1984 Toyota suffered $3,500 damage.

Mrs. Jarvis was en route home from work at the Canadian Tire Corporation Store in Markham. The two vehicles met as they approached a single-lane bridge.
