

Bob McKinnon paces Bruins to 9-0 win Bruins and Whalers blank opposition

Having downed the league front runners, the Monte Cristo Kings, in their previous game, it came as no surprise when the Whalers picked up steam on Sunday morning to blank the Farquharson Penguins 4-0. The well-earned shutout went to Keith Betz who substituted for Bill Anderson in net.

According to coach Bill Shena, who took over the reins just two weeks ago, the Whalers are an underrated team that have, and can, produce a few more surprises. Shena, who is rumoured to have coached the Albany national hockey team in 1954, makes no bones about his team's prospects under his coaching umbrella. He has already thrown down the gauntlet to coach Ray Steel of the Kings, telling him that his boys' reign is over. We shall see.

Next Sunday will see the Kings and Betz Pools meet in a 9 am game. The teams are first and second respectively in the league standings. It should prove to be the game-of-the-week. Full results are as follows:

South white Bruins 9 - Travel Flyers 0
 Bruins' goals: Bob McKinnon 5, Wayne McMann 2, Doug Wilson 2.
Betz Pools 5 - Village Capitals 2
 Betz goals: Mike Jones 2, Ron Collins, Randy Lee, Barry Hart.
Capitals' goals: John Blair, Wayne Emmerson.

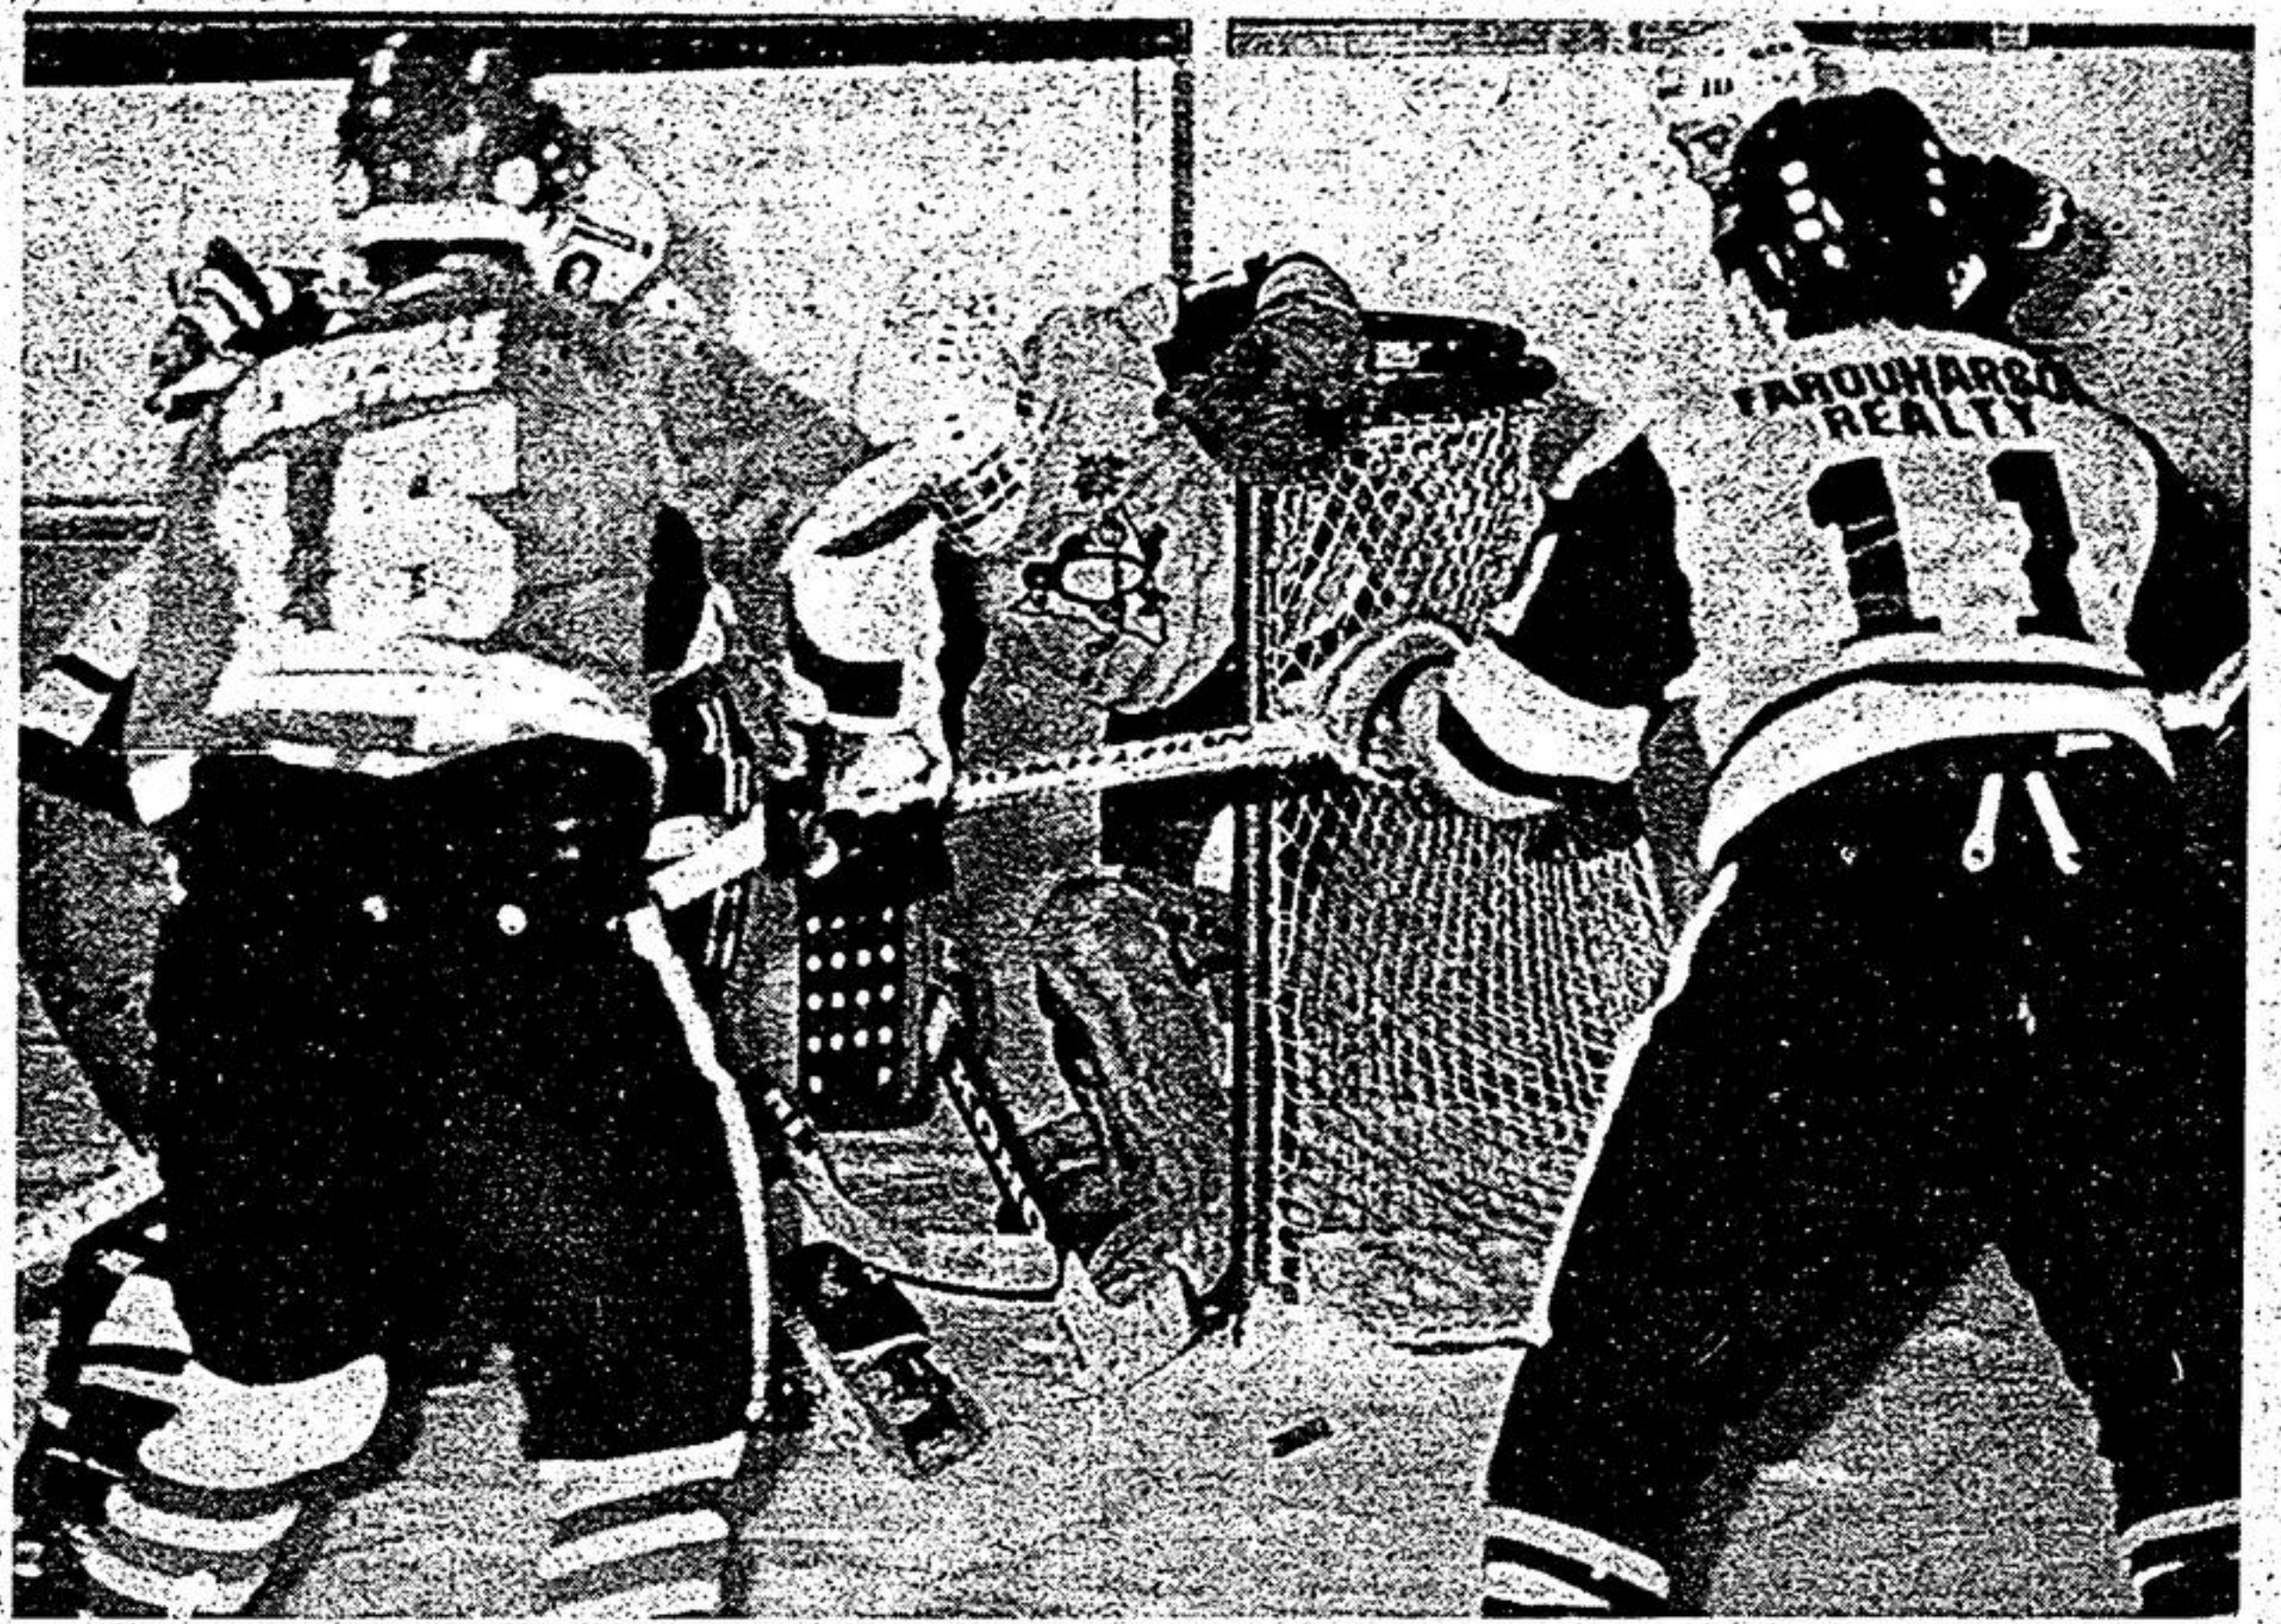

Electric Whalers 4 - Farquharson Penguins 0

Whaler goals: Steve Skinner 2, Brent Stachel, Dave Boyd.

Len-Powell North Stars 2 - Canadian Tire Black Hawks 1
 North Star goals: Dan Catelli, Ed Rose.
Black Hawk goal: Bill Ormson.

Monte Cristo Kings 2 - Village Pool Jets 1
 Kings' goals: Terry Weatherall, Bob Slack.
Jets' goal: Glenn Whitebread.

Amateur league action

BUSY, BUSY BOYD. One of the busiest places in town on Sunday morning was the Farquharson Penguin net. Netminder John Boyd put in some fine saves for the Penguins but couldn't keep the rampaging Electric Whalers at bay. The Whalers, currently on a winning streak, blanked the Penguins 4-0 for their second successive win.

Art exhibition at Board offices

The third annual art exhibit for staff members of the York Region Board of Education is being held from January 23 to February 17 at the Board Office in Aurora.

Approximately 100 pieces from 31 exhibitors are on display. Teaching and non-teaching employees, whether amateur or professional artists, are taking advantage of this opportunity to show their work. Many kinds of arts media are represented, including oils, water colours, photographs, sculpture, silk screen and tapestry.

Two staff members at SDSS, Jane Warren, head of the arts department and local artist John Roberts, are exhibiting.

Stephen Bacsalmasi, Superintendent of Planning and Development, under whose division this art exhibition has been organized, stated that so many Board employees have a talent in some form of art. "We are recognizing the ability and excellence of our staff in a wider area than in the classroom or on the job," he said. This exhibit was coordinated by Jean Duran, Art Consultant for The York Region Board of Education. A selection committee, including Dorothy Clark MacIure of Aurora and Lea Vivot (sculptor) of Vaughn, previewed the materials and arranged them for showing.

A short opening program was held on Monday Jan. 23. Members of the public are invited to view this art display until Feb. 17 during regular office hours. The Board Office is located at 60 Wellington Street West in Aurora.
