

Complex comes 'alive'

The apartment complex at Albert Street South and Sunset Boulevard is nearing completion, in fact, three tenants have already moved in. The project, a first for Stouffville, is being built by A & S Construction. There are 42 suites in total, seven 1-bedroom and thirty-five 2-bedroom. All appliances and materials required for the complex have been purchased locally.

Lioness Club

Support hospital

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville Lioness Club is totally committed to the success of the Markham-Stouffville Hospital project, so committed, members would like to furnish one of the rooms when the work is completed.

"That's our aim," president Mary Moffatt told The Tribune.

Last week, Mrs Moffatt presented a cheque in the amount of $340 to Keith Sutherland of the hospital fund-raising board. At the same time, club past-president Bobbi Bichener presented a cheque in the amount of $350 to Sandi Stronach of the Whitechurch-Stouffville Rec. Centre Co-ordination Committee.

The funds were raised through a Yule Log draw and a bake sale held in 1983.

Bowlers advance to second round

STOUFFVILLE — Thirty-one Stouffville youth bowlers have advanced to the second round in the Four Steps To Stardom Tournament.

Aileen Said,
"If Gerry Learned to Knit, Anyone Can!"

"It took awhile, but I did it"

And at the same time I taught our sales staff a stitch or two.

Aileen, Barbara, Joan and Tina could not believe the stitches I created knitting my first 8-hour sweater. (I'm not sure I could duplicate them now either!)

I must admit that our staff does know a lot about knitting. And have I tested them! Dropped Stitches! Extra Stitches! Half Stitches! And No Stitches!

Psst.....Gerry's Tip of the Week

The 8-hour sweater you may have heard about, can take 2½ weeks or more to complete. I KNOW!
