Bridal show to aid Heart Fund drive

A paradise for prospective brides; it's the second annual Bridal Fair and Fashion Show, Sunday, Feb. 19 at the Thornhill Community Centre, Bayview Avenue and John Street.

The event, featuring 50 exhibitors, is being sponsored by The York North Wedding Guild, with net proceeds going to the Heart Fund.

The show begins at 2 p.m. and continues through until eight, with a gala display of wedding finery at 4 p.m. The fashion promenade, organized by The Wedding and Lingerie Room and Bunny's Flowers of Stouffville will include the following local models: Chris and Patti Hodgson, Stephanie Barclay, Elizabeth Anderson, Jane Anderson, Susie Anderson, Gwen Sheridan, Sheila McNeil, Merle Matheson, Maris Anderson, Sharron Brazier, Steve Barclay, Grant Johnston, Harold Hodgson, Bruce Burton, Lawrence Barclay, Kevin Berry, Scott Sutherland, Michael Anderson, Geoff and Jennifer Cowley.

At 7 p.m., a draw will be held for a grand prize — a honeymoon trip for two to Freeport, Bahamas. To win, the bride-to-be must be in attendance when the draw is made.

Tickets to the show ($6) are available from all Guild members including The Wedding and Lingerie Room, (640-2522) and Bunny's Flowers, (640-2632).

Retain radiant appearance

Don't let honeymoon travel, excitement, sun and lack of sleep play havoc with your glowing bridal beauty.

Here are some tips that can help you retain your radiant look all during the honeymoon:

- Sunburn is the classic honeymoon horror. Take along a sunscreen that's even stronger than you normally use, and if you're in a tropical climate stay out of the midday sun altogether.
- Once your skin gets a rosy glow, you probably won't need any makeup at all for daytime. If you'll be swimming and want to use mascara, be sure to choose a water-resistant type.
- Have a good haircut two weeks before the wedding so that your hair dries right into shape, and pack a lightweight little hair dryer.
- Get enough sleep to avoid dark circles under your eyes. If circles do appear, dab on a little cover-stick or cream, dot a drop of foundation over it, and blend with a sponge.
