

Late Roy Wilson

Church brought him much joy

STOUFFVILLE — Service was held from the Stouffville Missionary Church, Wednesday afternoon, for Roy Wilson, Tindale Road, following his passing, Feb. 26 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. He was 84.

Mr. Wilson was admitted to hospital Feb. 24 and died the following Sunday.

He had suffered a heart attack in 1962, but recovered sufficiently to carry on a near-normal life.

Mr. Wilson was born in Pickering Township, the son of William and Alice (Gillman) Wilson. He farmed on the 7th Conc of Pickering for 36 years, then retired to Stouffville in 1969.

Mr and Mrs Wilson enjoyed travelling. Recent trips took them to the Holy Land, the East and West Coasts of Canada and Florida.

Mr Wilson's association with the Missionary Church was a source of great satisfaction. He was also a member of the Silver Jubilee Club and the Friendship Club.

Surviving, besides his wife, the former Beatrice Rennie, are two daughters, Lois (Mrs. Graham Dallas) of Bowmanville; Helen (Mrs. Lorne Lageer) of Scarborough; one son Eldon of Bright, near Woodstock; one brother, Grenfell, near Stratford and one sister, Fern Pennanen, Parkview Home, Stouffville. He was predeceased by a son, Glen and a sister, Winnie Reynolds.

There are nine grandchildren—Ray, Charlene, Darryl and Karen; Brenda and Jeff; Steven and Blair; and Kim.

Rev. Jim Clubine and Rev. Douglas Gray shared the funeral service with spring interment, Stouffville Cemetery.

Physician-teacher

Charles W. Lynde, MD, born and raised in Stouffville, son of Peggy Hood and the late Clifford Lynde, recently received his F.R.C.P.(C) in Dermatology. Dr. Lynde attended Orchard Park Elementary School and S.D.S.S., before entering the University of Toronto where he completed his medical degree. He will be opening his office at 276 Wellington Street West, Markham, early in April. In addition to his medical practice in Dermatology, Dr. Lynde will be teaching at the University of Toronto, School of Medicine, Department of Dermatology.

Clara Wideman

Aiding others is her desire

By Jim Thomas
WHITCHURCH — Helping people. This has represented a life-long challenge for Clara Wideman, Bethesda Road, R.R. 4, Stouffville.

As one career concludes, another begins—similar roles at different locations.

And so it soon will be again.

On Feb. 29, Clara retired from her position of Community Health Nurse for the Region of York, a position she held for 25 years. But she's not ready to "put her feet up" as the saying goes. She's thinking of taking yet another course that will better help her to help others.

"I have a feel for people," she says, "great satisfaction comes from assisting people in distress. In the area of distress, Clara has seen her share, including cases in hospitals at Niagara Falls, Buffalo and San Antonio, California. At each, she held very responsible positions.

In July, 1959, Mrs Wideman joined the nursing staff of the former York County Health Unit. She worked initially out of an office on Main Street in Stouffville, then Richmond Hill and later Newmarket.

Clara was a member of the Newmarket "nursing team" with four schools under their jurisdiction—Ballantrae, Whitchurch Highlands, Maple Leaf (Newmarket) and the Newmarket and District Christian Academy.

In addition to these duties, Clara was directly involved in the organization of the Ballantrae Sr. Citizens Club that meets regularly at the Whitchurch Centennial Centre.

"Often, only two or three would show up," she said, remembering how the program operated on a week-to-week basis. She praised the club's immediate past-president Otto Schweizer and the current president, Ernie Lee; also the Ballantrae and District Lions Club for their interest and co-operation.

This kindly mother of three, (two daughters, Anita and Cheryl, and one son, Allan), says she's never regretted her move into the community health nurse field. She admits that, over the years, she's been involved in many depressing cases, but considers this all a part of the challenge.

Communities are not as personal as they used to be, Clara claims. Because of this, the work of people in her profession is all the more important.

Another problem is a lack of low-rental accommodation. On several occasions, she was called to assist in finding improved living quarters for parents of small children.

Mrs Wideman said York Region is blessed with several agencies, ready and able to handle emergency situations. Such was not the case 25 years ago, she said, when assistance was no closer than Toronto.

"We're pretty well self-sufficient now," she said.

"I feel for people," Clara said, her soft eyes displaying a deep-down concern in her heart. She also considers it important that one "never stops learning." For this reason, despite her retirement, self-education will continue.

"I appreciate being able to help people in distress," she repeated, un-mindful of the fact how much those same people have appreciated her.

No, Councillor Marshall, $30 is not an exorbitant fee. Better if it was $60.

Sincerely,
Peter Cox,
Vivian.

Pay the price

Dear Editor:
Ward 1 Councillor Margot Marshall was quoted as saying: "Thirty dollars for a second dog is a heck of a lot of money!"

So is a second automobile, a second television set and a second micro-wave—and often totally unnecessary.

Those people who insist on keeping a second dog on their properties should be obliged to pay the price. If they're not, then they can always reduce the number to one. In most cases, one is sufficient and in some instances, it's one too many.

No, Councillor Marshall, $30 is not an exorbitant fee. Better if it was $60.

Sincerely,
Peter Cox,
Vivian.

Business Cards?
Do you need a business card?
How many times have you been asked to leave your name, address or phone number with someone, then fumble-finger through pocket or purse for a scrap of paper, an old receipt or the back of someone's business card to write this information? How much more convenient to have your own business or calling card—a card that reflects your individuality. Then next time you are asked for your name, etc. you can simply and suavely present your personal card.

We have cards in a variety of colours, finishes and type styles from which to select the card that suits you.

Prices start at as little as $10.95 a hundred.
