

Late Harvey Bunker Excellent farmer

MARKHAM — Service was held Friday from the Dixon-Garland Funeral Home, Markham, for Harvey Bunker following his passing, Feb. 29 at Green Gables Manor, Bloomington. Mr. Bunker had been a resident there almost two years. He was 91.

Born in Pickering Twp., he was one of ten children in the family of Frederick and Elizabeth Bunker.

For close to 60 years, he farmed on the 9th Conc. of Markham. He and his late brothers produced excellent crops. Their farm residence was a country beauty spot.

Mr. Bunker loved horses. He spent hours grooming them, mainly for his own enjoyment.

He was a member of the Oddfellows Lodge and served overseas during World War I.

Harvey Bunker was a good friend and neighbor, always willing to lend a helping hand. He maintained this cheerful disposition to the end.

Surviving from this large family of ten is one sister, Beatrice, (Mrs Mac Patterson), Village Squire Apartments, Markham.

Rev. Fred Styles of St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, conducted the service, Friday, with spring interment Elmwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Clarence Bunker, Harvey Bunker, Mervin Bunker, Jack Bunker, Don Bunker and Douglas Wagg.

Editor's Mail Appreciation

Dear Jim:

The Board of Directors, staff and students of Operation Catch-up would like to thank the members of the Stouffville Progress Club for their very generous donation of $1,000.

Thanks to their support, we will now be able to carry our programs through until June. It is gratifying to know that others share our concern about these youngsters.

It is groups like the Progress Club that have given Stouffville the reputation of being a strong and caring community. Our sincere thanks to all your members.

Sincerely,
Kay Marshall
Co-ordinator

William (Bill) Morris, (right), considered the savior of St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, was honored at a special dedication ceremony, Sunday, following the morning worship. The church's lower auditorium was designated "Morris Hall". In attendance were two former pastors, Rev. Fred Cromey, (left), now of Guelph and Rev. Don McKillican of Barrie.

Church's thanks

STOUFFVILLE — William (Bill) Morris, long regarded as the savior of St. James Presbyterian Church, was honored at a ceremony following the worship service, Sunday morning.

Sherry Morris unveiled a plaque recognizing "the many contributions of the Morris Family to the life and growth of St. James since 1922."

The church's Sunday School room has been named "Morris Hall".

In addition to granddaughter Sherry, other family members in attendance included son Clifton of Uxbridge; daughter Carole Novak of Wheaton, Illinois and grandchildren Michael and Jennifer.

Jean Davidson, the church's historian and member of the board of managers, cited the contributions of Bill Morris through the years including that of elder, board chairman, session clerk, roll clerk and trustee. It was through the efforts of Mr. Morris and members of the Morris family that the church remained open, she said. Mr. Morris was presented with a Citation of Appreciation.

In attendance at the dedication ceremony were two former pastors, Rev. Don McKillican of Barrie and Rev. Fred Cromey of Guelph.

Rev. McKillican recalled the year of 1948 when he accepted the pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Markham and St. James, Stouffville.

Initially, he said, services at St. James were held downstairs, an area heated by a pot-bellied stove, (that smoked continuously), and a wood floor that shifted up and down with the flow of water under the foundation.

The congregation consisted of only eight or nine people, he said. There were three children in the Sunday School—Clifton and Carole Morris and Glen Ross Thompson.

"Bill Morris," he concluded, "had a vision of the future."

Rev. Cromey spoke of the spirit of co-operation that has prevailed within the congregation of St. James. He referred to the construction of a debt-free manse "as a little miracle," a project, he said, made possible through foresight and planning.

He also praised the membership for completion of a new church addition in 1983.

Stricken suddenly

Improving Mrs. Wilf Ferguson, Ninth Line North, is improving steadily following a recent heart attack. Mrs. Ferguson was a patient in Scarborough, Centenary Hospital two weeks.

STOUFFVILLE — Fred and Muriel Nicholson were on vacation in Florida when he was taken suddenly ill. He spent twelve days in hospital there, then three days in Princess Margaret Hospital, Toronto, following their return. He passed away Feb. 29 at age 68.

Born in Petersfield, Hampshire, England, Mr. Nicholson came to Canada in the early 1950's. For nine years, he served as the manager at Maplewood Farms, in Maple, then took over at Dadson Farms, Ringwood where he remained six years.

For two years, he worked at Hoover's Machine and Welding Limited, Stouffville and later, Guaranty Trust.

Besides his wife, the former Muriel Yorke, he is survived by a son, Arthur, Winlane Drive, Stouffville; a daughter, Diane, (Mrs. Larry Spang), St. Louis, Missouri; a step-son and step-daughter, Lloyd and Dianne Yorke of Stouffville.

Rev. Cecil Tiller of Stouffville United Church conducted the funeral Saturday, from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, followed by cremation.
