

'Napoleon' welcomed home

Missing ten days, 'Napoleon', a 160-pound Newfoundland dog is welcomed home by Cheryl Jones of McCowan Road, R.R. 2, Markham. He was found at a farm on Kennedy

Road near 18th Avenue. A woman saw him walking through the fields and thought it was a calf.

Storm cancels service

By Evelyn Milsted
GORMLEY — The snowy, blowy weather, Sunday, forced cancellation of the evening service at Heise Hill Church. The sacred music program, to be hosted by the Golden Mile Gospel Singers, has been put over to Sunday, March 25 at 7 p.m.
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Farmer, (Melody Norman), married Friday in the Gormley Missionary Church. Mark and Melody will reside at Englehart.
 Mr and Mrs Ed Martin and family of Englehart, spent a couple of days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Paul Farmer.
 Mr and Mrs Neale Sider of Wainfleet, were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs Jos. Wideman.
 Mr and Mrs Bruce Steckley enjoyed Sunday dinner with Mrs Melba Steckley.
 The Heise Hill Sr. Sewing Circle met Tuesday at the home of Adeline and Mary Reaman.
 Mr and Mrs Allan Wideman of Papua New Guinea, will speak at the 11 a.m. service in Heise Hill Church. Doug Duvall and Janet Rogers of Child Evangelism, will address the seven o'clock evening worship. The Gormley Women's Institute will meet at 2 p.m., March 28 at the home of Mrs Walmsley. Roll Call will be answered by: "An Old-Fashioned Custom I Hate To Discard". Mrs Risebrough will present The Gazette. Members are asked to bring items for the Touch and Take Table. Hostesses are Mrs Chalmers and Mrs Walmsley.

 The annual Missions Conference will commence at the Missionary Church this Sunday with the following services and speakers: Morning worship, 11 a.m. Art Brooker of the Christian Blind Mission. Evening worship, 7:30 p.m. Sam Birkey of Haiti. Monday worship at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Marshall Metzger of Haiti. Tuesday noon luncheon. Rev. Merle Inniger of Pakistan. Tuesday evening, 8 p.m. Coffee hour at the home of Mr and Mrs Carl Timbers with Rev. Merle Inniger in attendance. Wednesday, 6:30 p.m. Mission banquet with Rev. Mark Snider of the Dominican Republic, the guest speaker.

Sign of spring

STOUFFVILLE — While the weather may not feel like spring, the calendar says a change in seasons is just around the corner.
 Realizing this, the Stouffville Lions are again selling fertilizer door-to-door. They'll be making the rounds March 31.

Hold public meetings

STOUFFVILLE — Two public meetings, dealing with zoning changes, will be held in the Council chambers, Tues., April 3.
 The first, at 8 p.m., concerns a proposed Day Care Centre at 220 Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville.
 The second, at 8:15 p.m., concerns property on the south-east corner of Main and Albert Streets, Stouffville.
 Comments, both for and against these applications, will be heard at the above times.
