

markville's 2nd ANNIVERSARY

Spring fashions come to Markville

This spring will bring fashions that mark the return of refinement — fashions that will make every woman feel more feminine, more beautiful.

To help celebrate its second anniversary, Markville Shopping Centre is featuring a fashion show on Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17 to preview the latest in day and evening wear.

According to Fashion Director Pamela Eves, the show's featured Canadian designers have captured a combination of easy to wear assurance with a mood of elegance.

The return of comfortable refinement will be emphasized with delicate feminine blouses, oversized jackets with slender skirts and easy tops, fluid skirts, and the dressy chic of an easy chemise.

Ms. Eves says designers this season are very partial to dresses that offer an all-day workability.

"Women will be delighted to have the chance to look beautiful and yet have the comfort," she explained, adding "there is something for everyone" this spring.

"Last year the lines were very rigid," said Ms. Eves. "The styles didn't suit every woman." Fashions for Spring '84 "knows no boundaries."

Skirts, made of fine wools and linen blends, will be at a variety of lengths, from mid-calf to the knee.

Layering can be effortless when elongated jackets are teamed with slender skirts and loose tops complimented with rope pearls, stiletto heels and the very fashionable snakeskin clutch.

Besides the "fluid" skirts, the collectables include slender pants, also at all lengths. The classic pant is back, with an uncomplicated purity of line, just covering the ankle bone. Pants will also stop above the ankle, or become city shorts in light cottons and gabardines.

Colors this season are traditional — fashionable combinations of creams or off-whites combined with sapphire blue or apple red for flair, or brown and cream, the softness of dove grey and all the popular neutrals.

For spring sportswear, women can combine delicate shades of "confection" pastels, including peach, pink, the palest blues and greens.

To complete the "total look", Ms. Eves advises women to take advantage of all the big, bright jewelry available this season.

To make a bold statement, she suggests big chunky beads, colorful button earrings, wider belts with the elongated scarf, bracelets in imitation brass and ivory, all combined with textures which make a pleasant alliance. All colors are available in this inexpensive trend, including peach to turquoise or navy to red.

These fashions will be featured in her fashion show. In addition, women can see the latest in "jungle wear", swimwear, coats, bridal wear and fashion with "today's man."

The shows are scheduled in the centre court of Markville at 7 p.m. on Friday, March 16 and at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. on Saturday, March 17.
