Travellers back

By DOROTHY REESOR
To begin the column this week, I will report about some interesting trips.

The Pinarellos are back from a four-week trip to Kenya, Africa, where they visited the Cartwrights who are in Africa for a year — perhaps longer. The trip included Mombasa on the coast, and game parks.

The Wrights flew to Colorado during the March Break for a week of skiing at Winter Park near Vail.

Brad Melvin and Alan Reesor went on a bus trip to Quebec City and skied with school friends at Mont Ste. Anne.

Instead of downhill skiing, for a winter holiday this year, Isobel Hood had an interesting time when she joined a group of 20 who flew to Sault Ste. Marie, took the train up the Agawa Canyon, then cross-country skied about nine miles to an isolated lodge where they roughed it for a week.

A week ago, about 40 ladies of the Markham area were on a bus trip organized mainly for Jean Leaf. The ladies shopped and had lunch at Yorkdale shopping mall, before spending some time at the beautiful McMichael Canadian Collection in Kleinburg.

Dinner was at Mrs. Mitchell's a charming place, which used to be the one-room school house in Violet Hill. A craft shop nearby, named "Granny Showed Us How," was once the Orange Hall.

The AOTS Men's Club of Wilmar Heights United Church is presenting "The Cachet Choral Group in Concert" on Monday, April 9, at 8 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained from Joyce Miles, the director, or choir members — Dorothy Reesor, Nancy Brown and Gwen Hewitt.

Come and enjoy an evening of light show music sung by this 32 voice mixed choir. The church is located at 963 Pharmacy Ave., south of Sheppard.

Victoria Square District Lions softball association announces that on Sat. Mar. 24, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. registration will take place at the community centre.

Lamb it up

Children were thrilled to have the chance to pat "Lamb-chops" as part of the Lamb-Ewe-Ram-A-84 during the March break at the Markham Community Library. Owner Diane Ward was on hand to show the lamb and to answer the questions about her flock of sheep.
