Double win for Classics

STOUFFVILLE — The Giles Chev-Olds Oldtimers, led by Doug Gornall, chalked up two successive victories in games Feb. 29 and March 3. In the initial encounter, the Classics defeated Ajax 6-4 after grabbing a 3-0 lead on goals by Ron Collins, Polly Minton and Wayne Jackson. Assists went to George Collins, (2); Doug Gornall and Dave Boyd. Other marksmen for the Classics later in the contest were Doug Gornall from Polly Minton, Polly Minton from Wayne Jackson and Carl Painter on a rink-long rush. Gornall Sparkles On March 3, the Classics romped to an 8-2 victory over the Malvern Elbow-Benders. Doug Gornall led the team's offensive with three goals and two assists. Other marksmen for the Classics were Rich Hughes, Vern Thomson, Polly Minton, Don Kimura and Dave Tucker.

Coaches' Pride - The Puppy Line

Atom coaches Gary Frazer and Glenn Whitebread admit that when the going gets tough it's the 'big boys' who get the ice time. However, they are also very proud of these three young players: known as the Puppy Line. The nine-year-olds are at every practice and work hard all season. I to Jay Scaife, Paul Trentadue and Jason Scott. Jim Holt

Hockey meeting

STOUFFVILLE — The annual meeting of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Girls Hockey Association will be held Wednesday, April 4 at 7:30 p.m. in Latham Hall. Recommended constitutional changes and amendments must be in the hands of the executive at least one week prior to this date. The mailing address is Box 989, Stouffville.

Slater's pool might close

VANDORF — The indoor pool at Vandorf may be closed. Harold Kyte, owner of Slater Lumber Limited where the facility is located, told a Culture and Recreation meeting here Wednesday, "it's nothing but a headache." Mr Kyte said he's continually receiving complaints from users but must break the lease before improvements can be completed. "I'm thoroughly disgusted with it," he told the audience. Kyte said he requires the pool as a form of fire protection for his lumber operation, but for public or private swim programs, "it's nothing but a headache."

Girls' hockey

In girls hockey association play on Sunday, Darlene Oden was unstoppable. Darlene fired a hat trick to lead Ross Photo-IGA in a 4-1 win over the Lions-Kinsmen girls. Jenny Teeter rounded out the tally with a single, while Cathy Dunkeld fed the puck to pick up three assists. Shawn Morrison counted for the opposition with Lynda Whiteside getting the assist. The junior series is now tied at one game apiece. The championship de-cider will be played next Sunday.
