

Fire guts home

Blaze causes $90,000 damage

A fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated $90,000 damage to the home of Robert Zappacosta, Cherry Street, Vivian, last week. Volunteers from Mt. Albert and Stouffville battled the stubborn blaze more than four hours before bringing it under control. There was no one at the property when the fire started. The owner has a second house in Toronto.

Order now!

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville Lioness Club is taking orders for nursery stock—red geraniums and red and white impatiences.

A potted geranium is priced at one dollar.

Impatiences are available at five dollars for half a flat (20 plants) or ten dollars for a full flat (40 plants).

The orders will be available for pick-up May 26. Requests must be received at least three weeks in advance.

All proceeds from this project will be donated to the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund.

The number to call is 640-4358. The Lioness Club hopes to make this venture an annual event.
