By Jim Thomas
GOODWOOD — At age 21, Julie Todd would seem to have done it all. However, she'd be the first to challenge this. For, only a few weeks from graduation, this personable Goodwood gal is now looking forward to acquiring her first full-time position—an office job "so I can grow with the company," she says.

Julie's our "Girl Next Door." Nearing the end of a three-year course in Business Administration at Seneca College, (majoring in accounting and personnel), Julie has nothing but good things to say about the King Campus school and Uxbridge High.

From her list of academic accomplishments, U.S.S. and Seneca will have nothing but good things to say about her. Julie holds a Lifetime Honors Award from Uxbridge, (Grade 9-13), plus the school's Art Award. In athletics, she excelled at Cross-Country.

She's been a straight-A student at Seneca and named to the Dean's Honor Roll.

But Julie's not a 'book worm'; far from it. She loves to fish, hunt, sing, draw, play the piano, the recorder and guitar—the list goes on and on. Recently, she completed work on two stained glass windows at Goodwood United Church and soon will start on another at the church's entrance, a memorial to the late Charlie Symes from wife Elva.

Julie speaks in glowing terms of Rev. Edith Ann McManiman, the church's pastor, describing her as "a real pal."

Julie admits she enjoys the north country, especially the area around Manitoulin Island and Thunder Bay. This summer, she hopes to visit Edmonton. As for overseas trips, Julie shakes her head. "I want to see Canada first," she says.

Julie only smiles when acknowledging the accomplishments of her mother. Because Mrs. Todd's currently working on her B.A. degree, Julie says her mother's really "a student herself." "We help each other," she said.

Others in the family include an older sister, Holly (Williamson) of Aurora and a younger sister, Sherri, at home.

LYNNE

That's how my husband Gerry, describes some of our summer yarns. I think they are also lovely, interesting and fun. Cotton yarns combine comfort and style and for the summer ahead nothing can beat a cotton sweater.

Make one for the summer! (And if you do, you'll be well ahead of Gerry. He's still on that gray sweater for his brother-in-law!)

OUR OWN ITALIAN IMPORTS HAVE NOW ARRIVED!

Rio, Mallorca and Marbella are various blends of multi-coloured yarns. Bolivia is a slubbed 100% cotton. All are competitively priced under $4.50.

Come in and let me or my staff show you our selection of summer yarns.
