Worst year of my life

Mr. Thomas: After surviving the worst year of my life, both physically and mentally, I'd like to share the following short story that for me, holds a lot of inspiration—Sue Wilson.

FOOTPRINTS
One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. From each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of his life.

This really bothered him, and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I've noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there has been only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed you most, you would leave me."

The Lord replied: "My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then I carried you."

On Saturday April 7, 1984 these happy faces all converged on Markville Cinemas to enjoy the movie Dragon Slayer. Popcorn and Drinks were plentiful. Yes it was "Carrier Appreciation Day"! The Distribution Department put together some rather funny skits for their enjoyment. Publisher Bruce Annan was on hand to add his never fading enthusiasm. A good time was had by all. Thanks For A Job Well Done.
