Double-decker fan club

STOUFFVILLE — Small-town visitors are supposed to find the big city awe-inspiring. Last week, however, the tables were turned. Toronto's sidewalk strollers were all agog when a double-decker bus with 52 Stouffvilleites aboard, rolled up to Hart House Theatre.

The passengers, part of the Tim Brazier Fan Club, reserved a section of Hart House for the showing of "Something's Rocking In Denmark". Tim is a member of the cast. His parents, Jim and Sharron Brazier, Hawthorne Avenue, arranged the trip.

They were accompanied by Gayle and Rich Atkinson, Pat and Glen Byer, Bob and Gunda Lewis, Gord and Lorna Ness, Ged and Betty Stonehouse, Stan and Elva Newmarch, Dot and Pere Schell, Charlotte and Gary Simmonds, Jack and Carol Watson, Frank and Muriel Steele, Jackie Petrie, Elizabeth Fraser, Steve Thornhill, Ivan and Gail Harris, Donna Lewis, Charlotte Cave, Don and Helen Huxtable, Bill and Marguerite Murphy, Lorne and Marion Broadway, Phil and Loretta Lavell, Wayne and Ann Bell, Mark and Cathy Kristoff, Bruce and Bunny Burton, Don and Mary Smith, Dave and Sandy Stronach, Jim and Lovanna Sanders, Ozzie and Mary Bradshaw and Don and Suzanne McNair.

Owner of the bus is David Hay, R.R. 1, Gormley. The bus driver was Bill Curtis.

Fifty-two members of the Tim Brazier Fan Club, left Stouffville by double-decker bus, Wednesday evening, to attend a performance at Hart House Theatre, Toronto. Tim's parents, Jim and Sharron Brazier, Hawthorne Avenue, (shown here), arranged the trip. Tim is a member of the cast. While the big city's supposed to turn the heads of small-town folk, on this occasion, the opposite was true.
