Celebrate Golden Anniversary

On May 23, Mr and Mrs Ken Betz, William Street, Stouffville, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. To mark the occasion, a family gathering was enjoyed at the Deer Park Inn. Mr and Mrs Betz were transported to the Deer Park in a chauffeur-driven limousine. They are justifiably proud of their two daughters, Sheila and Marie; two sons, Marvin and Keith; ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mr and Mrs Betz were the recipients of messages of congratulations from Prime Minister Trudeau, former Gov. General Ed Schreyer, Lieut. Governor John Black Aird, Premier Wm. Davis, M.P. Sinclair Stevens, M.P.P. Bill Hodgson and Town Mayor Eldred King. — Jim Thomas

MELVILLE CHURCH ANNIVERSARY
 The congregation of Melville United Church, (Kennedy Road), will celebrate their 139th anniversary with a special service this Sunday, (June 3), at 11:15 a.m. Guest speaker is Bruce Aitken with music by the Wideman Quartet and the Melville Church Choir.

COMPUTER COURSE FOR CHILDREN
 Parents are invited to the Town Library for a preview of the computer course for children, six to fourteen years. Classes will be conducted during the summer months. A demonstration is planned for Wednesday evening, (tonight), at the Library from 7 to 8 p.m.

MAGIC TICKETS AVAILABLE
 June 8 and 9 are Magic Days in Stouffville. Tickets for the close-up magic show in Latcham Gallery, ($3.00), and the festival magic shows in Latcham Hall, ($5.00), are now available at the Public Library.

Howard Story Well-known

BALLANTRAE — This community was shocked and saddened, May 20, to learn of the sudden death of Howard R. Story, a resident here for thirty years. Mr Story collapsed and died while working in the front yard near the family home on the Aurora Road. He was 69. Born near Goodwood, the son of Russell and Frances Story, Howard worked with his father several years. Through this association, he became involved in the gravel transport business, an activity he continued until his retirement.

UNITED CHURCH FUN DAY
 They couldn't have timed it better. Stouffville United Church's second annual "Fun Day", in the Town Park and Latcham Hall is the same date as the Firemen's Muster - Sat. June 23. Practically the entire congregation is involved in one way or another with activities beginning at 9 a.m. More details will be published in the weeks ahead.

Howard and Mrs Story, the former Florence Marshman, moved to the Ballantrae area in 1954. Here, they raised a family of four including three sons, Fred of Morinville, Alberta; Ken of Stoney Plain, Alberta; Bill of Port Bolster and one daughter, Barbara Kleinfeldt of Keswick. There are eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. A sister, Irene Pattenden lives in Newmarket.

ATTEND CONFERENCE
 The 60th annual meeting of the United Church (Toronto) Conference was held last weekend at the Thornhill Community Centre, with a concluding service of ordination at Timothy Eaton Memorial United Church, The Stouffville United Church congregation was represented by Rev. Cecil Tiller, May Richards and Patti Richards.

Rev. Wayne Reed of Ballantrae United Church conducted the funeral service, Thursday, from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. At the request of Mrs Story and the family, two close friends, Norman Cox and Jack Parsons served as honorary pallbearers.

LATE EZRA D. GROVE
 Service was held Monday from The Richardson Allard Funeral Home in Hanover for Ezra D. Grove following his passing in Saugeen Villa; Hanover on May 26. He was 86. Mr. Grove is survived by two sons, two daughters and four brothers, John and Aaron Grove of R.R. 2, Markham; Levi and Thomas Grove of Stouffville. A full obituary write-up will appear in next week's Tribune.
