

A large crowd attended the official opening of the Mill Hollow Gallery at Utica, Saturday, a proud project of Georgia Tremaine (Youngs), formerly of Claremont. The original mill dates back to 1852 and was used up until the mid-1960's. Here Georgia and daughter Tina, age 4, hold one of her favorite paintings. The mill, now a family residence and gallery, is in the background. —Jim Thomas

Claremont couple marks anniversary

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — An open house in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of Lillian and Joe Empringham will be held at Claremont Legion branch 488 this Saturday, June 2.

Friends and neighbors are invited to attend and extend their best wishes. The gathering will run from 2 to 5 p.m.

There isn't much time left to get tickets for the Lions Club annual draw and dance.

The event will be held Friday, June 8, in the Uxbridge Arena's community hall starting at 8 p.m. The Lions need your help, so try to support them on this project. For ticket information contact Frank Hill at 649-2653 or Bob Tramm at 649-2832.

The Town of Pickering is accepting applications from persons wishing to sit on the Property Standards Committee. Three citizens will be appointed to the committee, and will meet only when an appeal is to be heard. Anyone interested in the position should submit an application to the Town Clerk on or before June 1.

About 45 adults and children were served a pancake breakfast at the United Church on Sunday, May 27. This was the last session of Sunday School until the fall.

On Sunday, June 3, the annual Congregational Picnic of the United Church will be held at Claremont Park. An outdoor worship is planned for 11:15 a.m., with lunch and games to follow.

Each family should bring a main course and a dessert. Any extra ball equipment and lawn chairs could also be handy, as a ball game is being planned.

A community shower was held on Monday evening for Shelley Ward, eldest daughter of Bernice and Jack Ward. Congratulations to Shelley and Tim on their upcoming marriage.

Michael Carruthers, son of Wendy and Bill Carruthers, was in hospital last week but is now home.

Any young people interested in working with the community care program this summer should contact Karen Marks at 649-3030 or Marion Peddie at 649-3012. The service provides senior citizens with assistance for a variety of odd jobs.

Sorry to hear that Dave McKenzie was injured during one of the men's fastball games. He's a member of the Claremont Legion club. All members of the community wish him a speedy recovery.

Lenora and George McKenzie hosted a group of visitors over the weekend, including Ray and Edith Hill, David Hill, Doreen Jackson, Ryan and Courtney of Collingwood, Darlen Styles, plus Lindsay and Brienne of Meaford.

Marion and Willard Peddie travelled to Gravenhurst on Saturday to attend graduation ceremonies at the Ontario Fire College.

Men's Sunday slow pitch league got underway on the weekend with a number of new players taking part. The first game saw Captain Bob Leger and his team easily defeat Glen Hammond's squad.

In the second game Bryan Norton and his club downed the club captained by Willard Peddie. Dean Norton's entry posted a win over the Bob Lehman roster in the third and final game. The men will be playing every Sunday starting at 5:30 p.m.
