

Town Queen Karen Nugent

Encourages others

Will crown queen of '84

By Jim Thomas

STOUFFVILLE — Only one young lady can reign as Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville 1984. However, just taking part can be exciting, says 15-year-old Karen Nugent of Elm Road.

Karen should know. She participated in the Pageant last year—and won, an experience she'll never forget.

"It was fun," she said in an interview Friday. "I met a lot of wonderful people."

It also opened other doors including a six-month modelling course with the Judy Welsh Agency, Toronto. It's been a confidence-builder, Karen says.

This vivacious Grade 10 student was the life of the party, last year, participating in every activity going. She was an entry in the 'People Parade' on Main Street; started off an open-air dance and assisted Mayor King on the first pitch to start a three-day ball tournament.

Karen admits she felt "right at home on the mound" since she loves sports including basketball, tennis and golf. Her father, Wayne Nugent, is an ex-Argo and Phys. Ed. instructor at Woodbridge High. Karen hopes also to be a teacher.

Has the spotlight of attention changed the Karen of '84 from the Karen of '83. "I don't think so," she replied. She regards it all as "just fun."

She's also hoping others will give it a try, just as she did a year ago, always remembering that taking part, rather than winning, is most important.

The Pageant date is June 28, and Karen is planning to attend—to crown her successor, Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville 1984.

Fifteen-year-old Karen Nugent, Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville '83, will crown her successor at the June 28 Pageant in the auditorium of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Deadline for entries is June 15.

Enjoyed school fair

Dear Editor: A brief note re the Stouffville Christian School Spring Fair. As a city resident who attends the Flea Market in your town most Saturdays,

(and adds to traffic congestion on your Main Street), I was prompted to visit this event for a couple of hours during the afternoon. I had a ball. I found the people extremely friendly; willing to talk even though they didn't know me from Adam (Eve). You don't find this in Toronto. The activities, while not of the

C.N.E. variety, were fun—a truly pleasant outing. No wonder city folk enjoy visiting communities like Stouffville. Please don't hold it against us. If the situations were reversed, likely you would do the same. We're not all lucky enough to live in a community like yours.
