Andrea English leads Unionville Squirt girls

Strong pitching from Andrea English has helped the Unionville Squirt softball girls win all three of their season games so far.
English allowed two hits and struck out 13 batters in the season opener, a 10-2 decision over Don Victoria. English, along with Tracy Stewart, also contributed two RBIs each.
Also strong at the plate were Julie Vedder and Joanna Mason, with two hits and one RBI apiece. Other runs were scored by Leslie Gallagher, Colleen Thorburn and Becky Clarkson.

Bridlewood was the next to be humbled, as Unionville cruised to an easy 28-1 victory. English pitched four innings of no-hit ball, then Julie Vedder took over and gave up only one run and two hits in the final three frames.
Gallagher paced the offence with two home runs. Vedder and English smacked round-trippers as well.
English threw a no-hitter and smashed a pair of hits as Unionville buried Pickering 9-1 in game three. Vedder, Gallagher and Joanna Mason also had good offensive games.

Markham Bantams win consolation title

Markham's Bennett and Wright Bantam girls rebounded from a slow start to win the consolation crown at a recent Richmond Hill softball tournament.
Seven errors and six unearned Richmond Hill runs (four in the top of the seventh inning) were the reasons behind Markham's 7-1 opening-game loss. The squad's only hits came from Lisa Colley and Karen Lanning.
Markham's bats came alive in game two, as it dumped East Gwillimbury 20-13. Lanning, Patty Miller, Heather McKenzie, Melissa Joynt and Vicki Smith smashed a pair of hits each, while pitcher Joanna Minor allowed only six hits.
The squad rebounded from a 3-0 deficit to win the consolation final 4-3 over Pickering.
Pickering was in control in the fourth inning, when Kim Black singled to bring in

Smith and Sue Stover. Lanning and Karen Lobb were then walked and Colley brought them home with a double to score the winning runs.

Girls win close games
The Unionville Burl's Cartage Sophomore girls seem to be taking the Toronto Blue Jay approach to winning games.
Unionville won a pair of games last week over Stouffville and Richmond Hill, both by single runs. The squad's Scarborough fast-ball league record now stands at five wins and one loss.
Lisa Black and Karen Sellery both scored in the seventh inning to give Unionville the win over Stouffville. Black, Monica Donlevy, Lori Hogg and Nicki Morris had two-hit performances.
Last-inning runs by Black and Sharon Hollands helped Unionville beat back a Richmond Hill rally and hang on for a 15-14 decision. Overall, Unionville was outhit 18-14.
Linda Rowat led the offence with three hits (including a triple) and five RBIs. Sellery, Hewson, Kim Wakeford and Jennifer Robertson contributed a pair of hits each.
