Proficient at more than fighting fires
 Brigade volunteer Jim Rennie, (right), is proficient at more than fighting fires. On Saturday, he displayed his skill at expressing appreciation with Councillor Margot Marshall the recipient of his thanks. Picking up a few pointers is fellow firefighter Ken Roberts. Stouffville won top prize in the 'Best Time Pumping Class' at the Firemen's Parade and Muster. Councillor Marshall is head of the Fire Committee and presented the award.

Street dances planned

STOUFFVILLE - Stouffville will let its hair down this weekend. Not one, but two street dances are planned, the first on Friday evening at 8 p.m., sponsored by Unionville Jr. Farmers and the second, Saturday evening, also at 8 p.m., sponsored by Gary Bouwmeister. The location is Park Drive South, near the Arena. A disc jockey will provide the music. Friday Admission is two dollars. Brian's Dixie Band will take over the stage, Saturday. Admission is $3 per person; $5 per couple. The double dance night is part of the Town's Canada Day-Bicentennial Celebrations that begin June 28 and conclude July 1.
