JOYCE ROWLEY

1984 "Citizen of the Year" CEREMONY - Thurs., June 28, 9 p.m. at Stouffville District Secondary School

Enter your pet

STOUFFVILLE (June 30) in the South Park. The event is part of the Town's Canada Day-Bicentennial Weekend that begins June 28 and concludes July 1.

Time of the Pet Show is 2 p.m., with registration beginning at one.

The following categories will be judged:

- Dog with the longest tail; dog with the longest ears; the largest pet; the best dressed pet; best cat in show; pet doing the best trick; best pet other than a dog or cat; most unusual pet; the look-alike contest and The Grand Champion.

Ribbons will be presented to first, second and third in each class. A rosette and trophy will go to The Grand Champion.

Only legitimate pets will be judged and each must be secured by its owner to prevent unpredictable dog-cat confrontations. The Tribune's Jim Holt will serve as master of ceremonies.

To honor six seniors

STOUFFVILLE — Six senior citizens of Whitchurch-Stouffville will be honored Sunday for contributions to the community over the years.

The event is part of Whitchurch-Stouffville's Canada Day-Bicentennial Celebrations that begin June 28 and conclude July 1.

The ceremony will take place immediately following the open-air worship service.

A committee, headed by Ruby Holzschuh, President of the Silver

Jubilee Club in 1983, included Eva Hoover, Jean Barker, Dr. John Button, Ken Laushway, Gordon Ratcliff, Charles Nolan and Reg Stouffer.

And that's what planned Sunday evening, July 1 in Stouffville's South Park.

The aerial display will last about 20 minutes.

Proud project

STOUFFVILLE — Whitchurch-Stouffville's new band stand; the Town's Bicentennial Project, will be dedicated at a ceremony in the Stouffville Park, Sunday, July 1 at 10:20 a.m.

On Sat., June 30, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Concert Band, will present a concert at this location in the Park beginning at 12 noon.
