Few spectators for fine parade

Dear Editor:
The Fire Muster Parade in Stouffville, June 23, was a colorful and exciting event. My two sons are still talking about it. They'd never seen anything quite like it before.
But where were the other parents and their families? The public response to this procession to me was pitiful. Visiting brigade personnel must surely have wondered about the 'spirit' in our community.

The Town Fire Department, I hope, doesn't host this event solely for its own enjoyment. One has to wonder, however, if the local firefighters are the only ones remotely interested. The sparse crowd on Stouffville's Main Street would so indicate. Me and my sons felt 'lonely' standing there.

Sincerely,
David Proctor,
Stouffer Street,
Stouffville
