

Academic achievements recognized

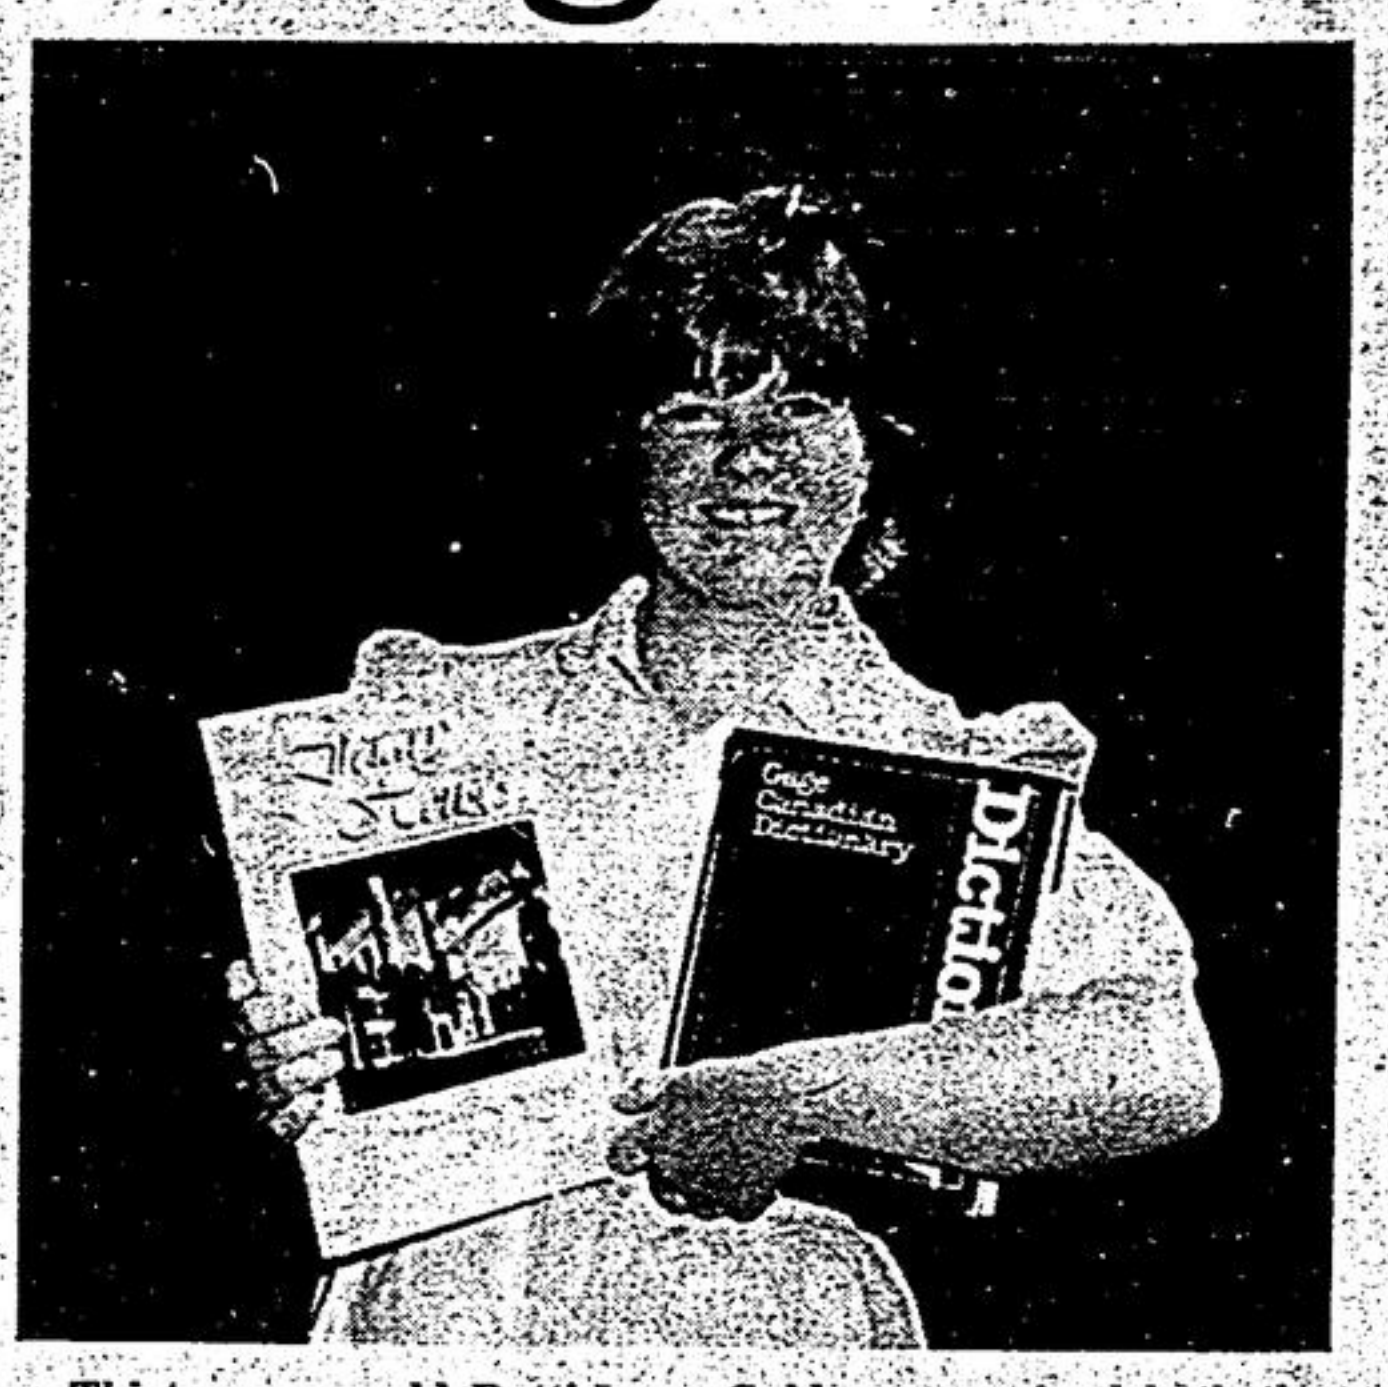

Attila Burzuk and Lindsay Tomlinson received several awards including School Letters, June 26, when Ballantrae Public School held its Grade 8 graduation ceremony. In total, Attila and Lindsay appeared on the platform fifteen times during the evening. Recognition was for both academic and athletic proficiency.

—Jim Thomas

Faye Rosenberger (left) and Coriette Hofstee (centre) were recipients of two top Grade 8 awards when Summitview School held its graduation ceremony, June 26. Faye won the Richardson prize and Coriette will have her name engraved on the Kay Dowsell plaque. With the graduating students is staff teacher Jan Percy.

—Jim Thomas

Thirteen-year-old Patti-Lynn Goldman received both the Richardson Award and the York Region Board of Education Award for General Proficiency in Grade 8 when Orchard Park School held its graduation ceremony, June 26. In addition, Patti-Lynn won the subject award in English. She'll enter Grade 9 at S.D.S.S. in September.

—Jim Thomas

Wins Richardson award

STOUFFVILLE — Thirteen-year-old Faye Rosenberger, a Grade 8 graduate of Summitview School, has joined a very select group of students.

At graduation ceremonies, June 26, Faye received the prestigious Dr. Richardson Award for high academic achievement. She'll enter Grade 9 at S.D.S.S. in September.

Faye described the announcement as "a real surprise." She also won the Schell Lumber Mathematics Award. Her overall average was 85.5 per cent.

Faye has nothing but good things to say about Summitview school. "The teachers really care about you," she said.

Other students receiving special awards were Coriette Hofstee, (Outstanding Contribution-Kay Dowsell Award); Shay Lewis, (Geography); Coriette Hofstee, (Music); Jamie Geddes and Steve Topping, (Art); Robyn Duke, (French); Ron Ormson, (History); Stephanie Barclay, (English); Derek Hamilton, (Judy Fockler Award-Most Improved); Jeff Christensen, (Special Education-Most Improved); David Enderwick, (Special Education Achievement); Stephanie Barclay and Ron McConnell, (Jim Fletcher Award-Outstanding Contribution to Athletic Program).

School Letters were presented to Shay Lewis, Robyn Duke, Greg Vlieg and Ron McConnell.

Academic Letters were presented to Mark Dorey, Robyn Duke and Ron McConnell.

Principal Lorne Boadway welcomed the parents and concluded the ceremony. The valedictorian was James Hume.

Members of the 1984 graduating class were Laura Appleton, Lee Armet, Stephanie Barclay, Tammy Bass, Laurie Black, Danny Bongard, Leanna Boyd, Mark But-son, Jeff Christensen, Ted Collins, Travis Davis, Mark Dorey, Tracy Dudley, Robyn Duke, Geoff Dukeshire, Nick Ellis, David Enderwick, Michael Ferguson, Steven Fronske, Jamie Geddes, Steven Gornik, Andrew Green, Andrea Grundy, Tammy Gyton, Jonathan Hall, Derek Hamilton, Coriette Hofstee, Yvonne Holden, Glenn Holt, Sandra Hulme, James Hume, Craig Johannessen, Julia Jones, Jenny Kerr, Tracey Lehman, Ron Leonard, Shay Lewis, Krista MacFarlane, Marcel Maillet, Ron McConnell, Darren McCool, Craig Richards, Jim Richardson, Faye Rosenberger, Melody Schmeler, Jerry Shields, Blair Steel, Jenny Stover, Steven Topping, Jeff Turcotte, Greg Vlieg, John Watters and Diana White.

Ex-principal speaks

BALLANTRAE — Twenty-eight students of Ballantrae Public School received their Grade 8 graduation diplomas at an impressive ceremony, June 26.

Members of the "Class of '84" include Tracy Andrews, Matthew Brand, Attila Burzuk, John Clark, Cameron Coleman, Elena Coultice, Shaun Deavitt, Henry Dervaric, Chris Diamond, Kim Dougall, Christine Dube, Corrie Ellis, Dawn Ellis, Paul Given, Doug Graham, Joan Kingsmill, Robin Lock, Lee-Ann Mark, Vickie Martin, Bill McQuaker, Paul Moran, Guy Murfitt, Derrick Schellenberg, Tracey Shortis, Tammy Sylvester, Lindsay Tomlinson, Michael Veltri and Trudy Watson.

Principal John Hicks addressed the parents and friends. He also wished the graduates success.

Words of appreciation were spoken by Lindsay Tomlinson, a member of the graduating class. The guest speaker for the evening was former principal, John Laughlin, now with the Ministry of Education.

Individual awards were presented to the following: Paul Moran, Most Improved Student; Lindsay Tomlinson and Attila Burzuk, School Letters; Robin Lock, Public Speaking; Tammy Sylvester, Girls' Athletic Champion; Guy Murfitt, Boys' Athletic Champion.

Tabs for subject excellence were presented to the following: Henry Dervaric, (Art); Lindsay Tomlinson, (Social Science); Attila Burzuk, (French); Lindsay Tomlinson, (Math); Derrick Schellenberg, (English); Doug Graham, (Music).

Recognized for academic achievement were Attila Burzuk, Derrick Schellenberg and Lindsay Tomlinson; for public speaking, Robin Lock; for service, Attila Burzuk, Tracey Shortis and Lee-Ann Mark and for effort, Joan Kingsmill, Lee-Ann Mark and Paul Moran.

ANOTHER NISSAN MAJOR EVENT

RON DELINE HAS JOINED THE WINNING TEAM. JULY 5TH, 6TH AND 7TH IS MARKVILLE NISSAN'S GRAND OPENING.

Maybe you already know Ron Deline. He's spent quite a few years working for the competition in these parts.

"Well, their loss is our gain." Because these days you'll find Ron at the new Markville Nissan.

And this is his personal invitation to come alive during the Grand Opening.

Visit our brand new 5 car showroom. And check out our full line of Nissan cars. Maxima, 300ZX, 200SX, Stanza, Sentra, and Micra.

As well as our rough, rugged compact trucks. Built tough, to carry the load over the long haul.

Whether you buy or lease, talk to Ron. He'll give you a fair deal. A good product. At a good price.

And follow it up with good service. In our topnotch 4 bay service department.

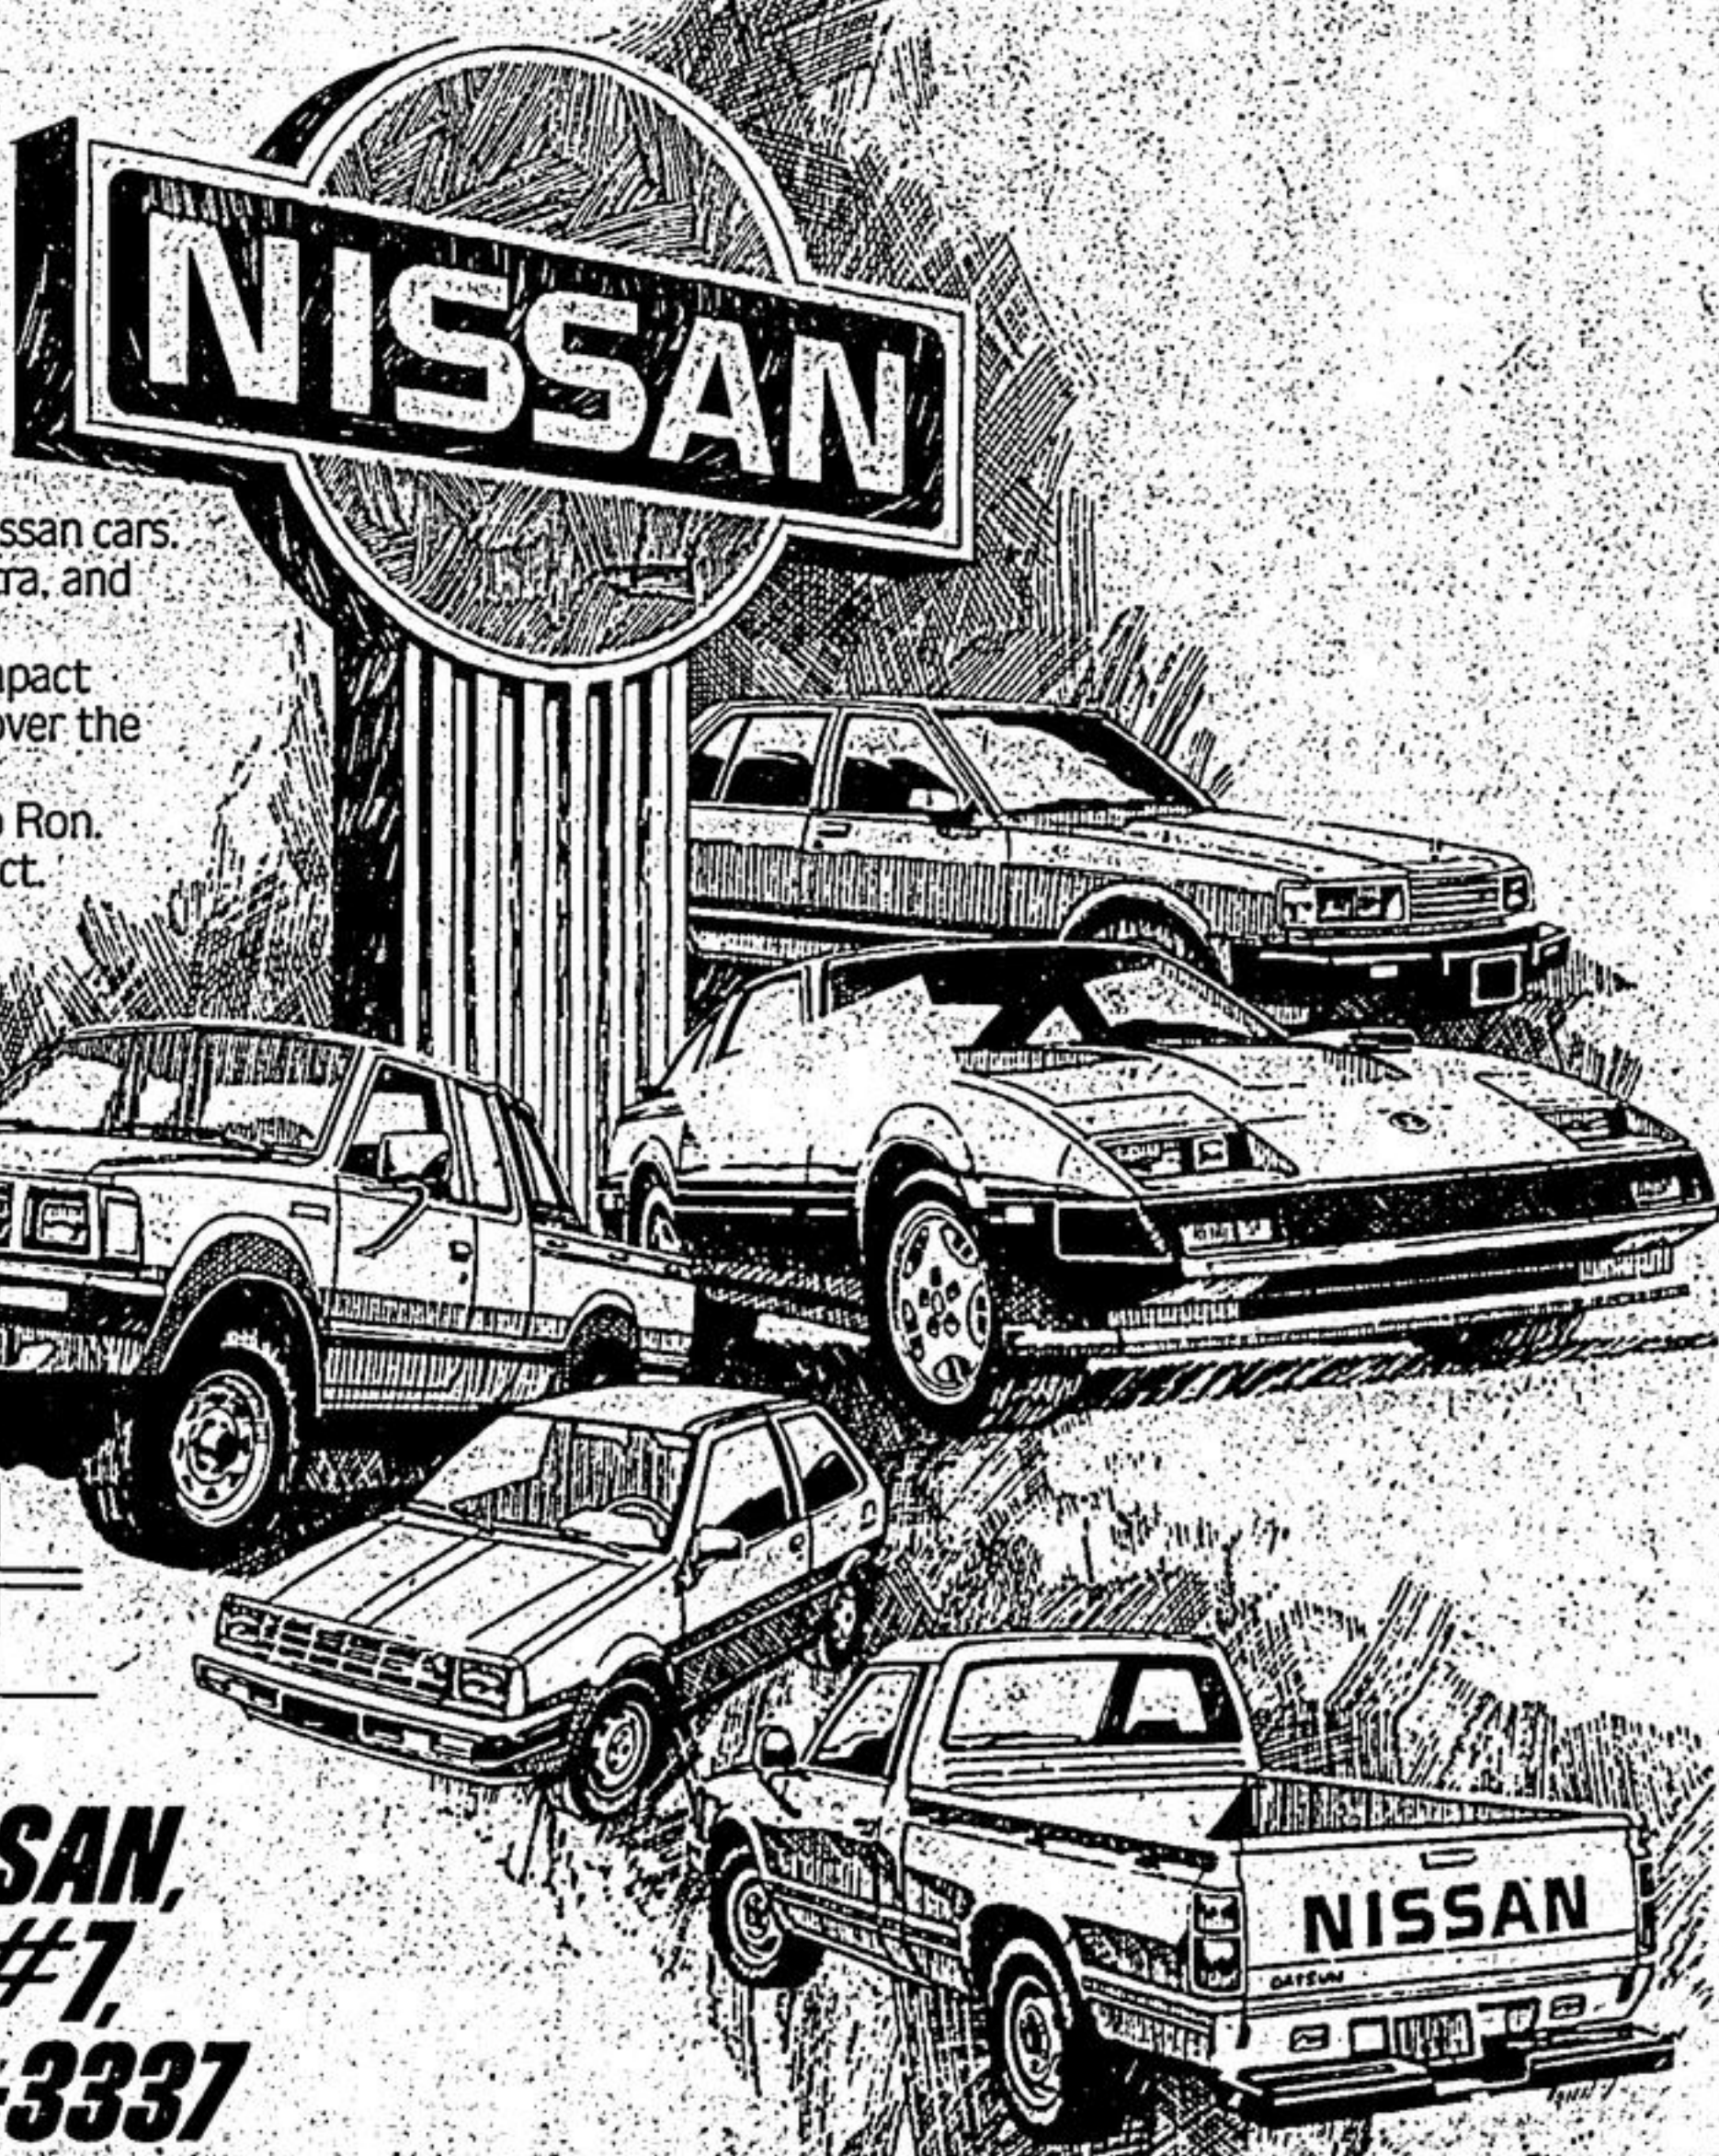

So come alive.

Unionville. Come

and drive Nissan.

And pick a winner.

After all, Ron did.

MARKVILLE NISSAN,
4600 HIGHWAY #7,
UNIONVILLE, 477-3337

COME ALIVE-COME AND DRIVE

MAJOR MOTION
FROM NISSAN

134 Robinson St., Markham • 294-6085

THE GLASS STORE opens in Markham

Now shoppers in Markham and their neighbours have a Glass Store. With more than 300 different drinking glasses in one store, we offer the same wide choice and promise of continuity of lines that has made us successful since the first Glass Store opened in Toronto in 1977.

Choose from a wide selection of everyday tumblers and wine glasses to hand-made, mouthblown barware and crystal goblets.

There's also strong and pretty tableware from France and many glass and crystal accessories, such as decanters, salad bowls, cake plates and cheese trays.

"Chateau" for your castle

This elegant, hand-made, mouthblown stemware from Europe will grace any table. Well-priced at $9.99 each. Open stock.

"Aristocrat" simplicity suits all

A clear, straight sided everyday glass, from juice to hiball, that's priced for everyday. These good quality glasses are open stock, priced from $1.39 to $1.79 and complement several lines of wine glasses.

Come and see us soon... over three hundred different kinds of glasses and everything else for the top of your table.

Open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday thru Saturday
Friday till 9 p.m.

"Alaska", frosty tumblers with a glacier texture

From Belgium, glasses to make a cool drink look even cooler. Several sizes and reasonably priced from $2.99 to $4.99 each. Open stock so you can buy as many as you wish.

"Fleur" tableware open stock

We've the full line of Fleur tempered glass tableware from France... from small dishes to large, small plates to large, and cups and saucers. And it's all open stock so you can collect one piece at a time. Priced from $1.99 to $12.99 a piece.

Handmade pilseners and beer mugs

Mostly from Europe, our wide selection of handmade pilseners and beer mugs and steins can make any beverage taste better. Sparkling clear, in a variety of shapes and sizes; from round and compact to tall and slim. Prices start at $8.99.

134 Robinson St., Markham • 294-6085

VICTORIA • VANCOUVER • TORONTO