Immaculate farm property in Whitchurch-Stouffville

In the weeks ahead, The Tribune will be featuring some of the more beautiful town and country homes in Whitchurch-Stouffville and area. The property (above) is owned by Theo and Nellie Van der Burgt, Kennedy Road (Sixth Line) Whitchurch-Stouffville. Mr and Mrs Van der Burgt moved here from Gormley 22 years ago. Five of their six children are still at home—Joanna and Laura; Theo, Phil and Andy. The farm includes 160 acres.
 —Jim Thomas

THE ANTONE FAMILY COMING!
 The well-known Antone Indian Family from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, will provide the special music at the 11 a.m. service, Sept. 9 in the Stouffville Pentecostal Church.

CORN ROAST-SQUARE DANCE
 An old-fashioned corn roast and square dance is being sponsored by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce and hosted by Jack and Lorna Burrows, (Farmer Jack), at their garden centre on Kennedy Road, south of the Stouffville Road, Friday, Aug. 24 starting at 8 p.m. Tickets, ($5 each), are available from Julie Boadway, (640-3203), or Val Stapley, (640-6719).

TO BE MARRIED SOON
 Congratulations to Steve Newman and Heather McCulla, to be married Sat., Aug. 18 in the Missionary Church at Breslau, Ont.

MADE IT A WONDERLAND
 It's interesting to note that Craven Acres of 17th Avenue, Markham, the firm that has provided the flowers on Stouffville's Main Street for the past two summers, also provided the beautiful floral arrangements for the Wonderland Theme Park near Maple this year.

BOWLING ALLEY WILL OPERATE
 Although the Stouffville Bowling Centre is for sale, it will operate again this fall regardless of whether or not it's sold, owner John Wilson told The Tribune this week. Mr Wilson was released from hospital only recently and will require assistance if a buyer doesn't take over the facility before Sept. 1.

ATTEND 60TH ANNIVERSARY
 Mac and Fern Keith, R.R. 1, Unionville, enjoyed a recent holiday trip into the Sudbury area and Manitoulin. While away, they visited with Mr and Mrs Douglas Graham of Lucknow on the occasion of Mr and Mrs Graham's 60th wedding anniversary. Mac worked on the Graham farm prior to taking over as herdsman at the George Rodman property. At present, he's the herdsman at Almirea Hereford Farms, Kennedy Road.

AROUND TOWN

VISIT FORMER RESIDENTS
 Jim and Jean Thomas and family, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, visited with Dan and Laurie LaCarte and family at Burlington, Friday evening. The LaCarte family resided for a time at Altona and later at Uxbridge before moving to Burlington.

LOVELY DAY-LOVELY BRIDE
 The bride was lovely and so was the day for the wedding of Marty Spaagaren, R.R. 2, Markham and Richard Bartley of Stouffville, Saturday afternoon in the Stouffville Missionary Church. The happy couple, presently honeymooning in Bermuda, will reside at 25 Spring Street, Stouffville, on their return.

PREPARING CHURCH HISTORY
 Fern Keith, R.R. 1, Unionville, is in the midst of preparing a history on Peach's United Church, Conc. 7, Markham. Fern has many excellent photos and accompanying information dating back to the congregation's founding in 1890.

SNOOKER TOURNAMENT
 A snooker tournament will be held at the V.J. Arcade, 61 Main Street East, (Bowling Alley Block), Sunday, Aug. 12 beginning at 9 a.m. The entry fee is ten dollars.

FROM HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA
 Mrs. Herb Simpson of Ballantrae was pleased to have her son-in-law and daughter, Dick and Herberta Fines of Halifax, Nova Scotia, spend four weeks with her recently.

BACK IN HOSPITAL
 The many friends of Rev. Chris Sorley, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville, wish him a speedy recovery following treatment for a pulmonary embolism in York County Hospital, Newmarket. Despite the seriousness of his illness, Rev. Sorley hopes to be home later this week. He is the pastor to the congregation of Bloomington Christian Gospel Church.

COMBINED WORSHIP SERVICES
 The congregations of Stouffville United Church and St. James' Presbyterian Church are worshipping together in the United Church throughout the month of August. Service time is 10 a.m.

ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP
 Michele Morley, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wilf Morley, North Street, Stouffville, recently returned from a round-the-world trip that took her to such distant countries as Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, Greece, Spain, Portugal and parts of Europe. Michele was accompanied by Patricia Butts of Waterloo, a friend she came to know at university.

FROM WAINFLEET
 Mrs. Jos. Wideman of Parkview Apartments, enjoyed a visit last weekend from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs Neale Sider of Wainfleet.

HOLIDAY ON A HOUSE BOAT
 Councillor and Mrs Wilf Morley, North Street, Stouffville, recently enjoyed a two-week holiday on board a house boat, that took them through the Great Lakes waterway.

Heritage Festival

MARKHAM - "Come live the past with us," is the theme of the 11th annual Markham Heritage Festival, Sat., Sept. 8 on the grounds of the Markham Museum. The event is sponsored by the Markham Dist. Historical Society. Activities will include: Butter-churning, candle-making, caning, quilting, spinning, sausage-making, shingle-making and threshing. An old-fashioned spelling bee is planned. An auction of home-made quilts will take place at 3 p.m. The Festival opens at 10:30 a.m., and continues until four. Admission is $2 adults; children (under 12) free. The Markham Museum is located on the west side of Hwy. 48, north of 16th Avenue.

FROM WELLANDPORT
 Cathy Perrin, formerly of Ninth Line North, Stouffville, and now residing at Wellandport, Ont., was a visitor on the holiday weekend with Mr and Mrs Wellington Yake, Second Street, Stouffville.

IN CENTENARY HOSPITAL
 Clara Brillinger, Parkview Apartments, Stouffville, is a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

FINTELMAN FAMILY REUNION
 The annual Fintelman Family Reunion was held in the Stouffville Park, Monday. Close to 50 attended, some coming from as far distant as Ancaster and Fenelon Falls. It was back in 1953 that Peter and the late Effie Fintelman arrived in Stouffville from Holland with their nine children. Their numbers now include 33 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Mr. Fintelman Sr., now lives at Mitchell, Ont., north-west of Woodstock, moving there seven years ago.

LATE EVELYN JACKSON
 Service was held from the Giffen-Jannett Funeral Home at Barrie, Tuesday, for Evelyn (Mrs. Bert) Jackson following her passing, Aug. 4, at the Newmarket Nursing Home. She was 76. Bert and Evelyn Jackson resided on Rupert Avenue in Stouffville and later on Main Street East where she operated an antique shop. Mrs. Jackson was instrumental in organizing the Business and Professional Women's Club and served as president. Following Mr. Jackson's retirement as foreman at The Tribune, they moved to Sandy Cove Acres near Barrie. Bert now lives in Aurora. Surviving also are two sons, Arthur of Uxbridge; Albert at Newmarket; six grandchildren; three sisters and one brother. Interment was at Sixth Line Cemetery, Innisfil.

Candidates

YORK-PEEL: If residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville in the federal riding of York-Peel, wish to see the four candidates in action on the same platform, they'll have to travel to either Aurora or Newmarket. Two public meetings are planned, the first in Aurora High School, Wed., Aug. 22 at 8 p.m., and the second in the Old Town Hall, Newmarket, Thurs., Aug. 23, also at eight o'clock. Candidates John Hall, (N.D.P.); Pam McPherson, (Liberal); Ray Pritchard, (Independent) and Sinclair Stevens, (Progressive Conservative), will attend. Urban residents, whose names do not appear on the Voters' List, have until Aug. 17 to qualify. To correct the omission, a call should be placed to the riding Returning Office at 727-0146.

U. of T. graduate

Phillip John Conway, son of Bernard and Sheila Conway, Cedar Valley, graduated recently with an honors BSc degree in Botany from the University of Toronto. A graduate of St. Mark's School, Stouffville and St. Robert's High School, Thornhill, he is currently employed on the staff of the Ministry of Natural Resources at Manitowadge, Ont.

St. Mark's students win awards

One school year is over and another will soon begin, but for Bill Butler of R.R. 1, Stouffville and Anita Campitelli of R.R. 2, Stouffville, 1983-84 was a year they won't soon forget. Bill and Anita were presented with Top Progress Awards when St. Mark's Catholic School held its Grade 8 graduation ceremony in June.
