

Late Arnold Boyd Long-time employee respected

STOUFFVILLE — Among the floral tributes in memory of the late Arnold Boyd, were two beautiful bouquets from the firm of Custom Concrete Limited. Mr Boyd had been a driver for the company since the plant was first established on Woodbine Avenue, a period of 19 years. He was highly respected by both management and staff.

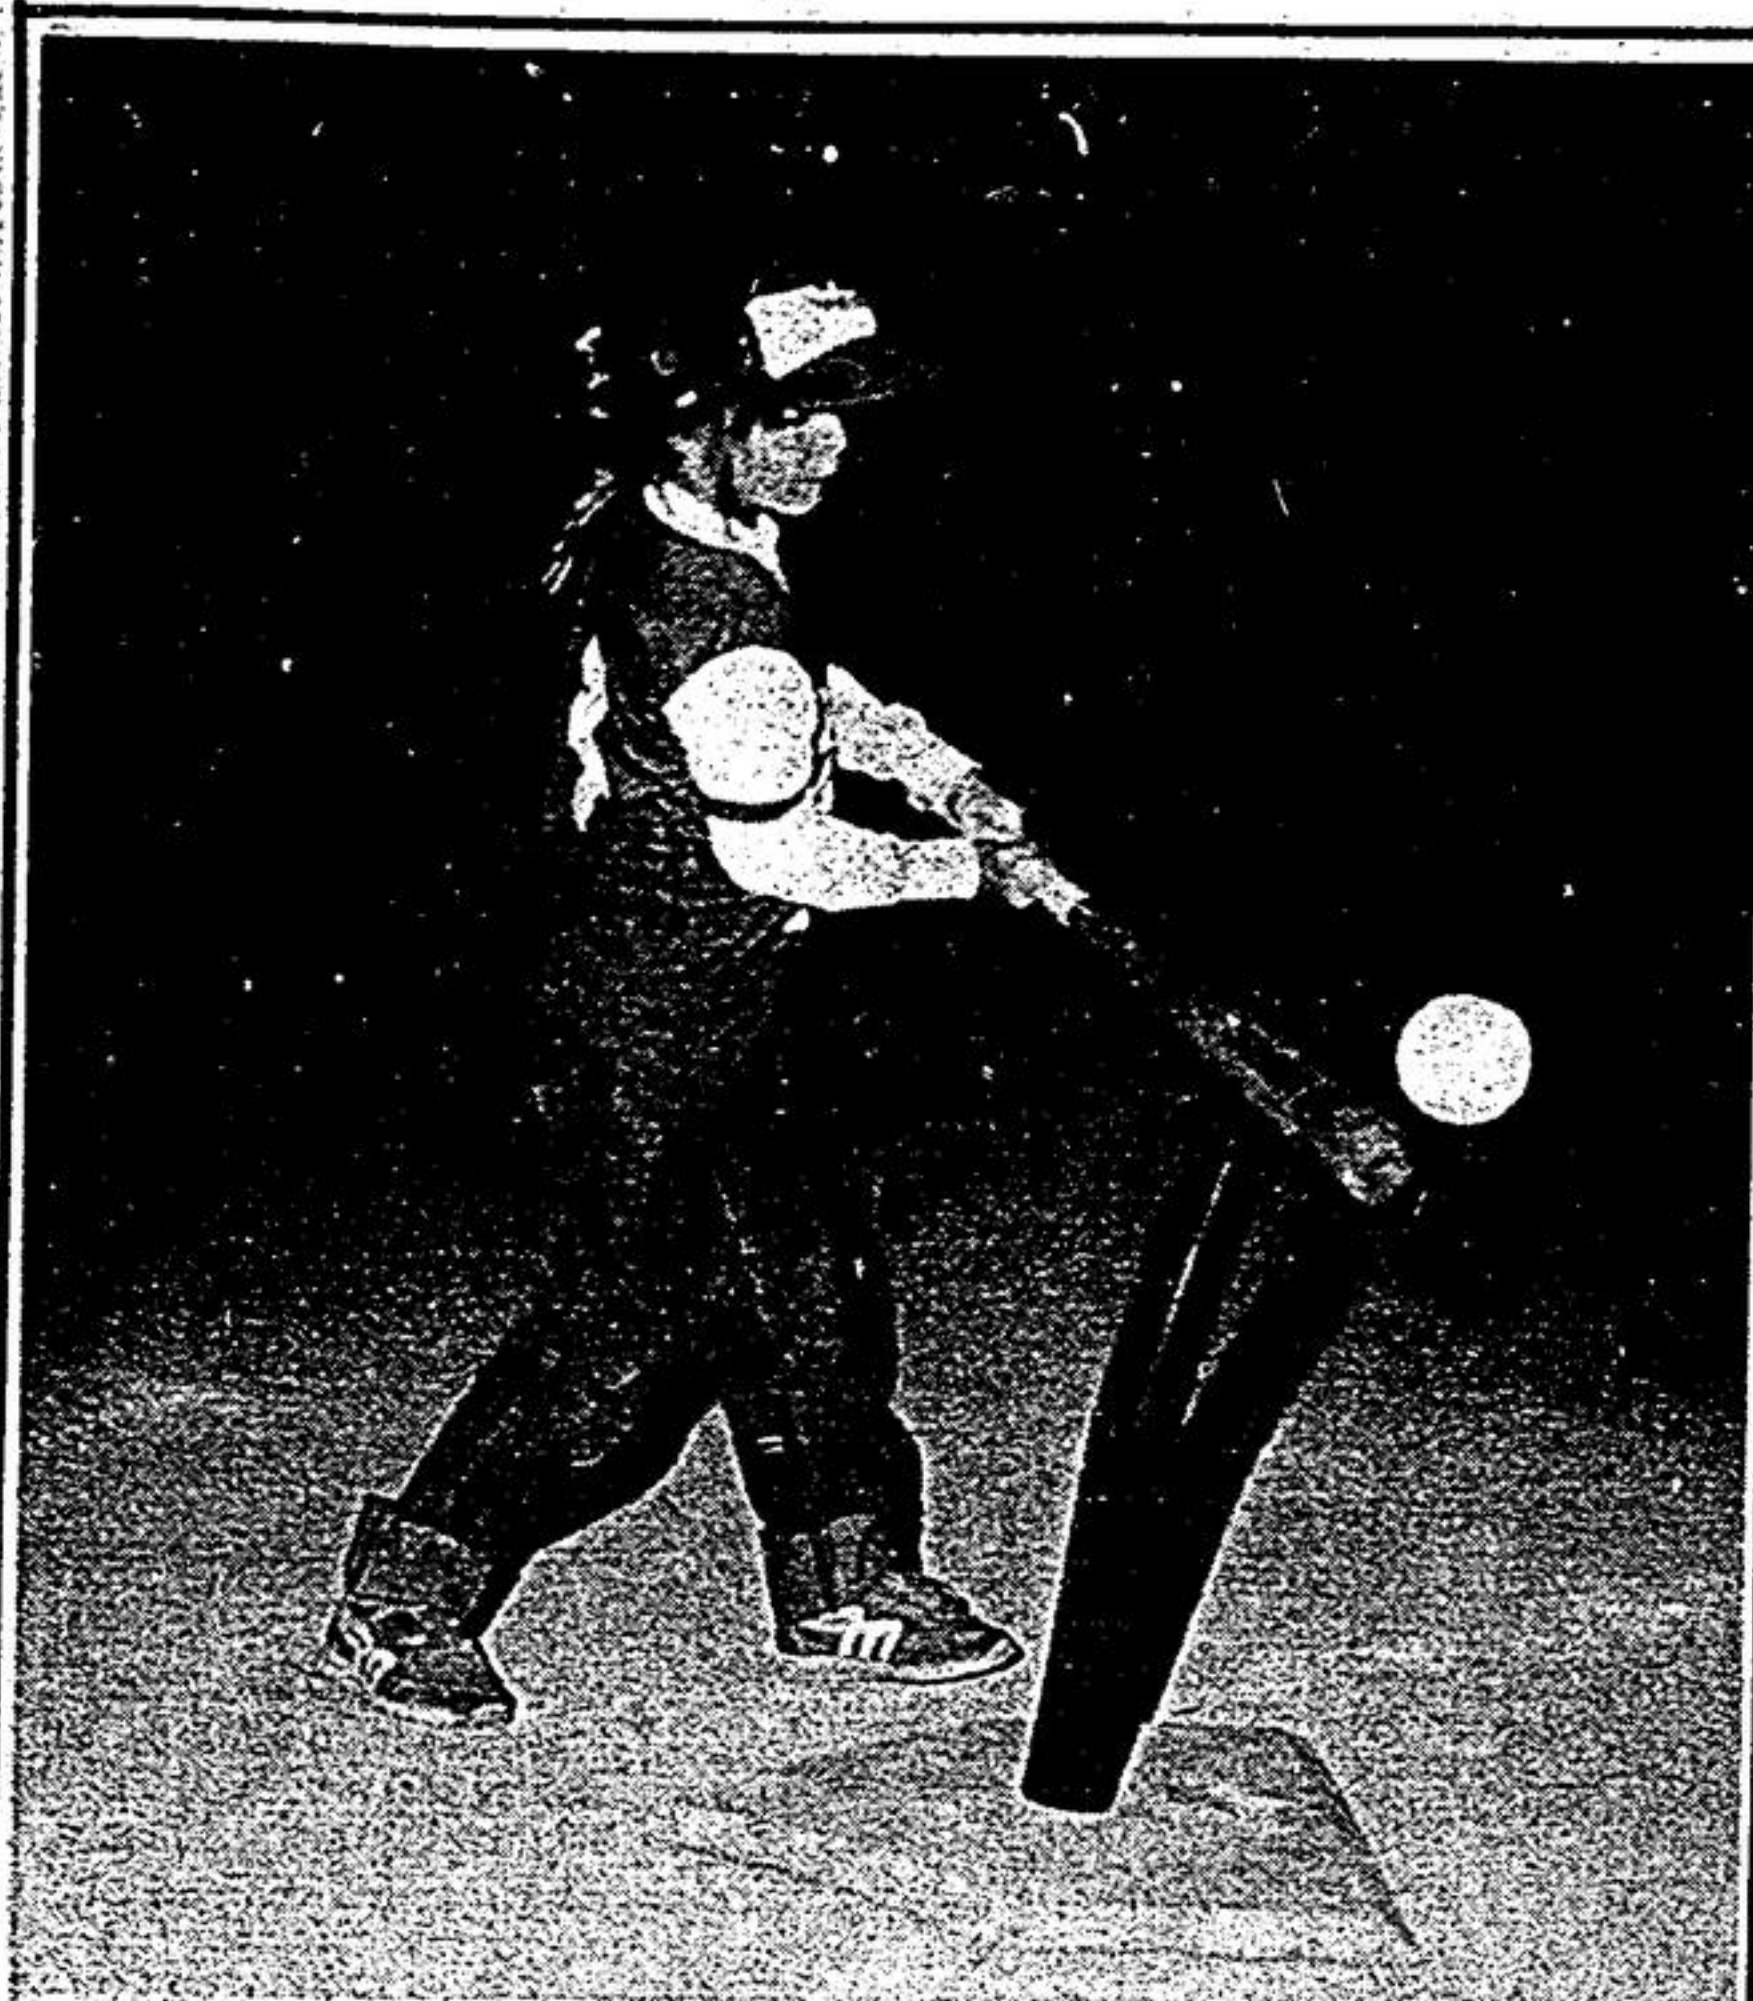

Arnold Boyd passed away July 31 in Princess Margaret Hospital, Toronto. For the past 1 1/2 years, he had lived with his son and daughter-in-law, Stephen and Sarah Boyd, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville. Another son, David, resides on Victoria Street. There are two daughters, Marlene, (Mrs Tim Lewis) and Marilyn, also of Stouffville.

Mr. Boyd was born in Peel, New Brunswick. On Nov. 23, 1945, he married Joan Colwell and took up residence first at Claremont and later on Second Street and on Fairview Avenue in Stouffville. Mrs Boyd predeceased her husband ten years ago.

Arnold was an avid golfer. He was a member at The Windmills Club on Kennedy Road, R.R. 1, Unionville.

Besides the immediate family, there are six surviving sisters—Ellen Taylor and Geraldine Wallace, both in New Brunswick; Ruth MacFarland, Fort Erie; Doris Dunham, Toronto; Gertrude McDonald, Whitby; Margaret Randolph, a missionary in Japan and one brother, Philip, also in New Brunswick.

Rev. Jim Clubine of the Stouffville Missionary Church was in charge of the service, Friday, from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Bob Martin, Ward Oliff, Ken Smythe, Norm Hollinger, Gerry Foley and Gordon Ramsey.

A female Cliff Johnson in the making

Even the Blue Jays' mighty Cliff Johnson had to start somewhere—perhaps playing T-Ball. Six-year-old Shelley Stewart, Vandorf Road, Whitechurch-Stouffville, shows her pro prowess with a bat. Shelley plays short-stop with Vandorf in T-Ball House League. The team is sponsored by Newtonbrook Block. —Jim Thomas

Adored her family

STOUFFVILLE — Service was held from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel, Stouffville, Monday, for Mrs Marshall Connor of Parkview Home, following her passing, Aug. 3 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. She was 82.

Mrs Connor, the former Viola Walker, was born near Markham, the daughter of William H. and Ellen Walker.

She was very close to her family and loved each one dearly. For the past seven years, she had resided at Parkview Home. She was keenly interested in crafts, including knitting and crocheting.

Mr Connor predeceased his wife, fifteen years ago.

Surviving is one son, Ron; one daughter, Loretta Walker, both of Stouffville; one sister, Millie Lapp, Dublin Apartments, Markham; five grandchildren, Linda Hie, Terry and Penny Plaskitt, Allen and Scott Connor and four great-grandchildren, Randy, Danny, Denise and Jason.

Rev. Ed Sparks of Parkview Home was in charge of the service with interment, Elmwood Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Dwayne Hie, Terry Plaskitt, Scott and Allan Connor, Bob Gallamore and Murray Emmerson.

Close touch

I have only one comment to make with regard to The Tribune's lead news story and editorial related to 'dividing the Town'. I believe that a newsletter from each ward member, once a month, (as your editorial recommended), is not too much to expect.

Most of us receive literature at election time but seldom do we hear from our alderman in the months in between. I strongly support this practice.

Sincerely,
Howard Banks
