

Rainfall is welcomed

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD—Thank we all for the rain on the weekend. It sure lets us know that it's Exhibition time. And it will soon be time to stoke up the stove or furnace.
 Rev. John McManiman spoke at the United Church on Sunday morning. And Rev. Edith Anne was the pianist.
 There will be a working bee at the United Church on Saturday, Aug. 25, when the plywood will laid on the basement floor. Any volunteer help would be appreciated. It starts at 9 a.m.

Bingo will be held Wednesday night. There's a considerable jackpot and great crowds have been coming out. It begins at 7:30 p.m.
 On Thursday, Aug. 23, the Christian Women's meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Goodwood Hall. Do try to come out.
 Last Wednesday evening was euchre night in the Goodwood Hall with an excellent crowd. Winners, for the ladies, were Mabel Gibson, Verna Smith and Elsie Boland. For the gents it was Phyllis Clark, Walter Slack and Jack Crone. The series winners were Verna Smith and Rache Eckardt for the ladies and Frank Jenkinson and George Hare for the men. Dooi winners were Ruth Beach, George Archer, Ruth Skinner, Mabel Gibson, M. Storrie, Janice Harrison, Frank Jenkinson, Margaret Eckardt, Joyce McGuckin, Elsie Taylor, Van Bell, Phyllis Clark, Velma Ross, Doris Norton, Ed Donnelly, E. Norton and Gladys Slack. The next euchre is Aug. 29 at 8 p.m. It's the beginning of another series.

'A Journey into Yesterday'

Elsie Ferguson signs a special scroll at Uxbridge-Scott Museum as part of a Bicentennial project organized by the Ontario Trail Riders Association. Local descendants of early settler families are participating in the historic summer trek entiled 'A Journey into Yesterday'. Elsie added her name to the scroll during the trail riders visit to the Uxbridge area on Saturday. Her great grandfather, William Ferguson, settled at Quaker Hill in 1830.
