

Plowmen prime for International at York Regional Branch Match

The York Regional Plowing Match, held on the farm of Larry and Wilf Rose, south of Mount Albert in the Twp. of East Gwillimbury, was, for several competitors, a practice for International competition this week.

A perennial winner at both Branch and International plowing competitions is Herb Jarvis of Agincourt. In attendance at the match, Saturday, were two grandsons, Bradley and Kevin Hackert, sons of Doug and Brenda Hackert, Stuart Street, Stouffville.

Floyd Forsyth of Stouffville enjoyed the company of what could be a future 'Queen of the Furrow'. Five-year-old Leandre Forsyth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forsyth, Market Street, Stouffville.

It was a family affair

MOUNT ALBERT—A father and four sons participated in the York Region Plowing Match Saturday, transporting five tractor and plow units to the site from Cookstown.

Keith Robinson, along with sons Paul, Kent, John and Tom, captured two firsts, two seconds and one third.

The competition was held on the farm of Larry and Wilf Rose, south of Mount Albert. Thirty-one hands were plowed, including five in the class for horses.

Dubbed 'The Chief' by a branch director, Les Smith of Sunderland and formerly of Whitchurch Twp., wears that label well. Mr. Smith heads up the judging fraternity at the International Match this week. He was an entry in the Antique Class at York Region Branch competition, Saturday.

Horsepower rivals tractor power

There were five entries in the Open Horse Class, Saturday, one of the largest in the yearly show.

Ed Timbers, 66, of Uxbridge, is still looked on as one of the best horse plowmen in Ontario. His entry in match competition is a keen today at sixty years, a 6 H.C. plowman with an 8-year-old of Sunderland at the York Regional Branch Match, Saturday.
