

Jamboree the champs in Claremont league

By Sandra Redshaw
CLAREMONT — Playoffs for the Ladies' Thursday Night Slow Pitch League finished up at the Park Thursday. County Jamboree, captained by Heather Redshaw, took the best-of-three series over the league champs, Colley, Borland and Vale. The insurance girls held number one spot by losing only two games all year. Congratulations to members of the champion County Jamboree team: Captain Mary Redshaw led her Lions club to the consolation title over Ruth Knapp's Hicks Sporting Goods squad. Tickets are available for the ladies' league dinner and dance, to be held at the Legion on Saturday, Oct. 13. Cost is $15 a couple. For tickets contact Carol Redshaw at 649-2342 or Carol Wood at 649-3111, before Oct. 6.

The next Claremont Winter Carnival meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 4 at 8 p.m. in the Community Hall. A committee of interested people is needed and other local organizations are urged to become involved. There are plans for a Carnival Beard Growing Contest. The official 'Face Feel' and 'Photo Face Off' will be held at Glenda's Hair Place Oct. 13 beginning at 12 noon sharp. Participants, who must begin clean shaven, can obtain entry forms at the Post Office, Co-op, Glenda's Hair Place and Claremont Petro Canada. Entries will be accepted after Oct. 13 but must be checked by Glenda Winterstein prior to final acceptance. Judging will be for: best natural untrimmed beard (Gabby Hayes); best trimmed beard; best goatee; and best decorative mustache. Only one win will be allowed per individual. Judging will take place on Thursday, Jan. 24, 1985.

Sports events have been finalized at the Royal Canadian Legion. The dart league will begin Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 7:30 p.m. Euchre (men and women) will get underway on Thursday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m., while the snooker league starts Monday, Oct. 15 and will run Wednesdays of each week at 7 p.m. A Halloween dance is the first planned this season. It will be held Oct. 27 at 8 p.m. Daryl Norton will be the D.J. Cost is $5 per person without costume and $4 per person with a costume. Linda Vernon is the new entertainment officer for 1984-85. If you have any ideas, suggestions, or know of any groups who'd like to perform, please give Linda a call at 649-2413.

Claremont Co-operative Nursery School is again holding a fund-raiser this year in conjunction with Samko Sales, 1230 Queen Street West (at Dufferin Street), Toronto. It will be held from Wednesday, Oct. 10 to Saturday, Oct. 13. People willing to assist should have their sales slips stamped with a 'fund raising' stamp at Samko, and then deposit them in boxes at the Claremont Corner Store or at the nursery school. Samko has many great buys on toys.

Carole and Al Redshaw hosted a 75th birthday dinner for Carole's father, Corlie Ashenhurst of Uxbridge, last Sunday. Those attending were Bob and Linda Ashenhurst; Roger, Doris, Stephen and Rodney Ashenhurst; Cathy Evans; Armour and Rachel McMillan; Turner Ashenhurst; Laurie and Ken Hope and daughter Karrie; Louise and Leanne Redshaw; and Alvin and Fern Redshaw.

Birthday wishes go out to Pam and Patricia Burton who celebrated their 20th birthdays on Wednesday, Sept. 26.

Frank and Sandy Hill hosted a corn roast for members of the EIEIO slow pitch team, neighbors and friends on Saturday evening.

Happy birthday wishes go to Helen Anderson, who celebrated Sept. 24.

Claremont Women's Institute will mark its 75th anniversary on Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 1:30 p.m. All former members are invited to attend this special event at Claremont United Church.

The Service of Introduction was conducted at the United Church on Sunday evening, formally introducing Doug Varey to the congregations of St. John's Brougham and Claremont. Taking part in the service were Rev. Glenn Jackson, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Marjorie Ferris, chairman of the Oshawa Presbytery; Rev. Susan Robinson, minister at Southminster United Church, Oshawa; Rev. Cameron Watts, minister at Claremont Baptist Church; and Miss Beatrice McLean, Secretary of Oshawa Presbytery. Lunch was served in the church hall at the conclusion of the service.

Winners of Claremont Public School's cross country run on Friday were: Darrell Vanderligt, junior boys; Claire Falkenburg, junior girls; Pam Evans, senior girls; Chad Redshaw, senior boys.

Youth killed in accident

UXBRIDGE TWP. — A 17-year-old Sandford youth was killed in an accident on Queen Street, Newmarket, Sept. 21.

Wade Leslie Swallow was walking down the street when struck from behind by a vehicle, according to a police report.

The youth died of severe head and internal injuries.

A 23-year-old Newmarket man has been charged with impaired driving and failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

The accused is scheduled to appear in Newmarket Provincial Court tomorrow (Oct. 4).
