

Markham team wins tourney

The Markham Recreational Hockey League's VIP rep team has come home from Thornhill's prestigious Crown Life Invitational Oldtimers Tournament with the top championship.

The club won the Ed Somers division after a slow start.

Markham began with a 3-3 tie against Kitchener.

"We had them 3-1, then we fell asleep," recalled coach (and Rec Hockey League President) Jim Metzler. "They scored two goals because they kept coming on and on."

Markham battled Barrie to a 2-2 draw in the second outing, then it put its act together and knocked off the Bauer Italians 4-2.

Ron Morgan led the attack with a pair of goals, while Gary Toporski and Ralph Rickard contributed singles.

Next to fall was XKL in the semi-final, with Markham taking a 3-0 win. Dave Burgan earned the shutout in nets, with Rick Wilson netting two goals and Dominic DeCastris one.

Gary Virgin's two goals helped Markham dump Brampton 4-1 in the final. Cliff Craddock and Rickard rounded out the attack.

Burgan earned the best goalie award for the division, as well as the MVP honors for the game. Wilson and Morgan also collected MVP awards.

Coach Jim Metzler was happy with his team's performance, despite the slow start. He noted the club played without five key players, but "we played basic hockey with a lot of talent. "The feeling was

"let's go out there and do our best," he continued. "And as soon as we beat the Italians, the momentum started. There wasn't one player on the team who didn't give 100 per cent."

Another reason for the victory, Metzler said, was that his club (after the slow start) began pressing the opposition constantly.

Marsha's Marauders and the June Bugs battled for the consolation honors, with the Marauders coming out on top.

Sue Strilisky had a good pitching game in the first outing, a 29-10 decision. Michelle Brown and Aileen Whitney provided solid fielding, while Cathie Jeffery and Kathy LeBarre carried the big bats.

Strilisky had another strong pitching performance in the second game, an 8-4 Marauders' win. Whitney, Karen Ziegler and Shirley Phillips backed her up with good fielding.

For the Bugs, Barb Cairney went two-for-three with a triple in the first loss. June Hamilton, Joan Allen, Barb Yeo and Barb Cairney had good games at the plate in the second loss.

No Names win title

The No Names made a name for themselves as they won the Unionville Ladies Slow Pitch League championship recently.

The squad lost the first game of the final with Hel's Angels 12-3, but came back to take the deciding contest 16-10.

Janet Patterson, Cathi Mount and Melody McKay had strong defensive games in the loss. Maggie Lalonde came up with timely hits in the second game, while Patterson had another strong defensive outing.

Carol McIntosh pitched well for the Angels in their win, supported by Sharon Gayman's work at short stop. As for their loss in the second game, the Angels felt the best team lost "due to unforeseen circumstances".
