

Late Herb Wesley Kring

One of Stouffville's most enterprising businessmen

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville's Herb Kring, considered one of this town's most enterprising businessmen, died Sept. 30 in York County Hospital, Newmarket, where he'd been a patient about four weeks. He was 73.

Mr Kring had suffered a heart attack a year ago, followed by another in July. The most recent, in September, necessitated his return to hospital where, by coincidence, Mrs Kring was also a patient after suffering a broken hip. Their rooms were only a short distance apart and she visited him regularly. Mrs Kring hopes to come home Friday.

Herbert Wesley Kring was born at Plevna, Ont., north-east of Callendar. Twenty-four years ago, he moved from Toronto to Stouffville and opened a store on Main Street where Stedman's is currently located.

He specialized in mattresses and soon was to be known as "Herb Kring, The Mattress King". Business flourished, with customers travelling many miles for bargains unmatched anywhere.

Coupled with expert salesmanship was Mr Kring's agreeable personality. He made friends wherever he went.

Following retirement from business here, Herb Kring purchased a trailer park at Nipigon, Ont. He also bought and sold amethysts, a type of stone used in the making of jewellery.

Although he retained his home on Tenth Line South, Mr Kring spent much of his time in Florida during the winter and up north in the summer. However, he never lost his enthusiasm for a stroll downtown for streetcorner conversations with his friends.

Mr and Mrs Kring enjoyed travelling and journeyed thousands of miles together in their van.

Besides his wife, the former Patricia Hartnett, Mr Kring is survived by two daughters, Barbara (Mrs Frank Williams) of Mississauga; Judy (Mrs Ted Welbe) of Arlington, Virginia; one son Jim in Toronto; two sisters, Loretta of Toronto and Esther in Saskatchewan and five grandchildren, Patti, Karen, Jim and Andrew Williams; and Judy Welbe.

Rev. Cecil Tiller of Stouffville United Church conducted the service, Wednesday, from the O'Neill Funeral Home with interment, Stouffville Cemetery.

Charlie Warden

Dream Trip Winner

Las Vegas bound in New Year

Mr and Mrs Charles Warden of Vaudorf are the winners of a 'Dream Trip' to Las Vegas. The draw, run by the Ballantrae and District Lions Club, was the tenth in a series of twelve draws and is worth $1,000. Mr Warden, a member of the Ballantrae Lions, was present at the draw. At first he refused to believe that he had won, accusing the members of "pulling a fast one". However, he was assured by Lion Tom Wood (right) that everything was above board and that he was indeed the winner. The couple plan to go just after Christmas.
