New physician joins medical centre staff

STOUFFVILLE — There's a new physician in town. The Stouffville Medical Centre has welcomed Dr. Andrew Patterson to its staff. His associates are Dr. John Button, Dr. Douglas Brodie and Dr. Donald Petrie.

Germany, he specializes in obstetrics and gynecology. Wife Ruth is a speech therapist. They have a son, Erick, age two.

Dr. and Mrs. Patterson have purchased the home owned previously by Rev. and Mrs. Jim Carter, Church Street North. Wayne's family still reside in Montreal. Ruth's family live in Mississauga.

Wayne and Ruth enjoy skiing, both downhill and cross-country. Wayne also enjoys hockey, of the non-contact variety.

After several years in another country, Dr. and Mrs. Patterson are anxious to re-establish their roots in Canada. From what they've seen so far, they're pleased to call Stouffville 'home'.

Dr. Patterson, a graduate of McGill University, Montreal, recently returned from Lahr, Germany, where he served as a civilian physician at the military base there. His 'tour of duty' extended over a period of four years. Dr. Patterson recalls visiting Stouffville on one previous occasion — at the home of Don and Jackie Petrie. "I liked the town then and I like it now," he said.

Aid elderly

Dear Editor: As a senior citizen and a regular attendee at Markham Fair, I wish to endorse your suggestion that some type of transportation be provided from the Markham Fair parking lot to the main site. How are the elderly supposed to get there? To walk, for most, is out of the question. I would recommend the Board obtain a dozen extra battery-powered carts, (the kind you see buzzing around the grounds) and use them for this purpose. Each one seats about three people, I believe. Without some sort of transportation service, the elderly, like myself, are forced to stay at home. Sincerely, Mrs. Walter Grier, Church Street, Markham
