Tons of apples Ready for picking

WHITCHURCH — Pick-your-own. Regardless of the product, the practice is popular; just ask Frank and Diane Passafiume, McCowan Road, Whitchurch-Stouffville. Here, it's pick-your-own apple time.

Mr and Mrs Passafiume moved to the property ten years ago, from Markham. There, they specialized only in strawberries. Here, they have both—in abundance.

Applewood Farms, as the location is known, is a 'family affair' although they hire students to help out during peak periods. The do-it-yourself people begin arriving (for apples), around mid-

September. Earlier varieties, the Passafiume's market themselves through various centres such as Farmer Jack, at R.R. 1, Unionville and in Stouffville. The most popular are Cortland, Delicious and Mackintosh. One tree will produce about two bushels. The cost, depending on variety, is about ten dollars a bushel.

"It's a fun thing," Mrs Passafiume says, particularly for families living in Toronto. They seem to enjoy spending an afternoon together in the country.

And the same holds true for the Passafiume family. "It keeps us together; we love it," Mrs Passafiume concluded.

This house is haunted

MARKHAM — Markham has, (or will have), a haunted house, but only on Halloween.

The location is Family Trust Real Estate, Hwys. 7 and 48.

Ghosts and goblins are sure to thrill every boy and girl who comes calling on this Oct. 31 Hallowe'en evening.

Children, 14 and under, dressed in costume and accompanied by an adult, will enter the haunted house, to the strains of ghostly music. They will meander through rooms with special effects and leave with remembrances of this annual event in the form of goody bags.

Taking into consideration that some may be frightened by their headless hosts, there will be two avenues for exploration, one for the timid and one for the not-so-timid.

Family Trust sales personnel, dressed in appropriate attire, will direct each child through the maze of activity, guaranteeing a safe (and spooky) night for all—and all for free! Time of the 'open (haunted) house' is 5:30 to 8 p.m.

Good news

Dear Mr Thomas:
I often become disturbed with the media, the daily newspaper media in particular, concerning their negative 'appreciation' of news content. It seems bad news is good news to them.

The lead story in the Oct. 10 issue of The Tribune was very satisfying to me personally. It concerned the citations for bravery awarded Regional Police Constable Wayne Snooks of Whitchurch-Stouffville; Fire Department Captain Ross Lawton and Hugh Kellock of Markham and David Hodges of Thornhill.

While this kind of news may not be Page 1 material in the big-city dailies, it's important to me, even though I'm not personally acquainted with any of these gentlemen.

It made my week.
Sincerely,
Wendy Paule,
Stouffer Street,
Stouffville

Top of the line

This show's a 'classic'

The 5th annual Hays Classic, held at Markham Fairgrounds, Saturday, hosted 4-H entries from coast-to-coast across Canada. One of the participants was Jan King, R.R. 4, Stouffville. —Jim Thomas

Fifteen-year-old Leanne Brown, like Jan King, is a member of the Markham 4-H Dairy Club. Leanne entered a calf in the Hays Classic at Markham Fairgrounds, Saturday. She is the daughter of Ray and Doreen Brown, R.R. 1, Unionville. —Jim Thomas
