Reader criticises 'cry wolf' story

Dear Mr Thomas:
I take strong exception to your 'cry wolf' story on Page A-1 of the Oct. 17 Tribune.

It's this kind of false alarm reporting that turns people against wild life and prompts them to kill without reason.

So the wolf population is on the increase. What's wrong with that? So farmers lose a few sheep and lambs every year.

In the world of nature, it's still survival of the fittest. So a 'pack' of four is seen running across the road and into a corn field. To me, that's wonderful. I wish I'd been the motorist who saw them. There's still a segment of our populace that's anti-wolf, the same as there are those who are anti-Black, anti-Catholic and anti-Conservative. These roots run deep. By whetting their appetites with alarmist news stories, the media is pushing these roots deeper still.

Sincerely,
Isabelle Taylor,
R.R. 1, Claremont

Mac Cosburn

Hospital leader

Mac Cosburn, 16th Avenue, R.R. 2, Markham, is the new chairman of the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Board.

He succeeds Lachlan Cattanaich, Chairman of the Board through five years and a 'guiding light' for the past eighteen years. Although Mr Cattanaich has relinquished the board chairmanship, he will continue to serve as a trustee on the board of directors.

Mr Cosburn is a past chairman of the hospital's planning committee. He's been closely associated with fund-raising and an enthusiastic supporter of the project.

The hospital president is Michael Butcher and the campaign chairman is Hugh Allan, president of Emerson Electric.

In addition to Mr Cosburn, others on the board of directors are: Vice-chairman Joan Wood; secretary-Phil Mihorean; treasurer-Bill Boyes; trustees-Ed Arsenault, Carole Bell, Harry Bowes, Keith Brown, Lachlan Cattanaich, Betty Chambers, Aline Cousens, Glenn Crosby, Ken Deer, Bill Hood, Dorothy Jenner, Eldred King, Jean Mann, Rod McLeod, Doug Mehar, Terry O'Connor, Ray Ostrander, Don Petrie, John Robson, Jim Scott, Keith Sutherland, Mildred Toogood, Jack White, Paul Weed and Beth Whitlock.

The campaign's goal is five million dollars. At present, almost $4.5 million has been raised. The target for the start of construction is July 1985.
