Praise

Dear Editor:
I wish to thank you and your staff for attending the recent concert held in the Goodwood Community Centre, sponsored by the "Altona Rug Rats".
I wish also to express proud and happy feelings towards the young people who comprise this organization. To them, I say, "you did a fabulous job". I was impressed not only with the time spent in organizing the concert, but with the behavior of these young adults. Their sense of excitement was balanced by courtesy. Each, I feel, is ready to become a self-motivated person and, as a group, capable of planning future events for the benefit of others in the community.
It was a distinct pleasure for me to be of assistance. I have never worked with more interesting and genuinely nice people.
Sincerely,
Diane Kerr
