Stouffville Players open next month

The Stouffville Players, local amateur theatre group, happily announces that the first play of the current three-play season will be "Thriller of the Year" by Glyn Jones, Friday Nov. 15 and 16 at Latcham Hall, Stouffville. Curtain time is 8 pm.

The play is about Gillian Howard, well-known London novelist who, "on her return from a celebration party, finds she has been sent a copy of her own successful novel 'The Lady is Dead'. There follows a series of strange 'accidents' which convince her that someone is trying to murder her." Who among her friends, associates and family has a strong enough motive to murder Gillian?

The cast is as follows: Susan Bell as Gillian Howard, Melanie Rodgers as Irene Knight, Cathy Wallace as Madge Robinson, Luz Myer as Beryl Spence, and Gladys

Germano plays Edith Howard. The play is directed by Roger Glazin and is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French (Canada) Ltd.

The next production of the Stouffville Players will be a play for children on February 16 and 17, '85. The final play of the season, a comedy, will be staged in early May.

Rugby returns to High School

After an absence of two years there has been an upsurge of interest in rugby at Stouffville High School.

Spartan teams, who in the past long past have captured prestigious titles such as the Georgian Bay Championships and York County titles, are once again being formed. One of the main reasons for the reawakening of interest is the presence of recently joined staff teacher Peter Nikolovskiy. Peter, a long time player with the Ontario Rugby Union, has taken the Spartans under his knowledgeable wing and is getting down to serious training.

Although the season doesn't start until next April, Peter is determined that any team with his stamp on it will leave an indelible mark on the opposition. Already, training films have been ordered and prospective players are expected to turn out for training at 8 am, prior to classes. Tough, sure it is, but then who ever trained for a rugby game whilst lying in bed. Look out Markham.

People of all ages and all walks of life do important and essential jobs as Red Cross volunteers.

YOU CAN HELP TOO.
