

Lions give new hope

Ted Columbus of Ballantrae is a young man who lives in a twilight zone. His life is one of helplessness, a life that depends on others to carry out for him the most rudimentary actions of everyday living; actions that we all take so much for granted.

A victim of a motor accident in November 1982 - an accident that has left him totally disabled - Ted cannot speak, walk or do any activities that require cognition and, unfortunately, he has been given little chance of recovery.

To make life easier for him, it was suggested that an indoor hydrotherapy pool be installed at his home on Hwy 48. However, the cost is something in the region of $5,000 and far beyond the means of Ted's family.

Fortunately, Ballantrae residents have a very active Lions Club. On hearing of Ted's plight, they decided to do something about it. Headed by Lion Dave Probert, the club has launched a fund-raising campaign to see that Ted gets his pool, and if the club's past successes are anything to go by, Ted should be taking a dip before Christmas.

The Lions are kicking off their fund-raising campaign with a Halloween dance this Saturday, October 27 at the Ballantrae Community Centre. Tickets are $25 a couple with 'live' band and buffet. Start is 8 pm.

Old school bell dates from 1891

Following the disastrous fire that gutted Ballantrae Public School in 1973, Mr Morley Davis, one of the caretakers, scouted around in the ruins and salvaged the old school bell. Last week, at a small ceremony to mark its return, Mayor Tom Wood uncovered the refurbished bell which now stands on a brick base at the front of the building. Jim Holt
