

AROUND TOWN

Plum pudding plus by the barrow-full

There's more in this wheelbarrow than a smiling red-haired girl! The load includes plum puddings, fresh from the Stouffville Bakery. Ten-year-old Christal Hartung of Sunset Boulevard is making deliveries. Her friend, eight-year-old September Hall of Victoria Street is 'going along for the ride.' Actually, September's giving Christal a helping hand. In return, she receives free transportation. —Jim Thomas

New hair salon opens on Main Street

It's called Apples, a new hair salon at 58 Main Street West, Stouffville. The owner-operator is no stranger to town. Sue Meyers has been sending patrons home happy for 15 years. Her parlor is located one door west of The Tribune Office. —Jim Thomas

The window says it all

STOUFFVILLE — It's the most beautiful window display on Main Street. That's what people are saying of Hudson's Florists. The designer is Kimberley Everson, new business owner. The operation changed hands Saturday. Kim has been associated with floral design for the past eight years, both in Scarborough and Markham. She's happy about coming to Stouffville. She's also pleased with her window and hopes admirers on the outside will soon be admirers on the inside, if nothing more than to say hello.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR — The ladies of Grace Anglican Church, 19 Parkway Avenue, Markham, are holding a Christmas bazaar, Sat., Nov. 10 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

HAND-MADE QUILT DRAW — A draw on a beautiful 84" x 104" triple rose pattern quilt, completed by the A.C.W. Craft Guild, will be made at the Christ Church Anglican bazaar, Sat., Nov. 17 at 3 p.m. Tickets are still available at one dollar a piece.

LEGION POPPY DAY — Official Poppy Day in Stouffville was Sat., Nov. 3. However, members of Stouffville Branch 459 will again be on duty for this purpose, Friday evening, Nov. 2; Friday evening, Nov. 9; Saturday, Nov. 10 as well as Saturday, Nov. 3. Your support of this worthwhile fund-raising project is appreciated.

LEGION LADIES BAZAAR — The Stouffville Legion Ladies Auxiliary Bazaar is this Saturday, (Nov. 10), from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., in the Legion Hall.

BETHESDA W.I. BAZAAR — The Bethesda Women's Institute are holding their fall bazaar and bake sale, Wed., Nov. 14 at the Lemonville Community Centre beginning at 1 p.m.

LIONS' CHRISTMAS TREES — The Stouffville Lions Club will once again be selling Christmas trees with pickup planned for Sat., Dec. 1. The sales depot will be the south-east corner of the Stouffville Plaza at Main West and Winona Drive.

PRETTY AUTUMN WEDDING — Donna Annette Timbers and Gregory Glenn Snooks were married, Saturday, in a pretty late-autumn wedding in Goodwood United Church. Donna is the daughter of Gordon and Linda Timbers, R.R. 1, Claremont. Rev. Wayne Budge, uncle of the bride from Brantford conducted the ceremony with the reception following in the Legion Hall, Stouffville.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR — St. Patrick's Church, Markham, is holding a Christmas Bazaar, Sat., Nov. 17 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The location is Hwy. 7 and Robinson Street, west of Hwy. 48.

DOG FOUND — A "very friendly" brown and white dog has found its way to the home of Linda Payne, Ninth Line North near Bloomington. Anyone wishing to adopt the prodigal pet is asked to call 640-5769.

LAWN BOWLING EUCHRE — The Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club is holding a euchre at the clubhouse, Monday, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. The location is Church Street South.

WINS ORATORICAL — Congratulations to Jason Brock, Duchess Street, Stouffville, on winning the Intermediate Public Speaking competition for York Region, in Aurora, Tuesday. Jason is a student at King City Public School.

ROAST BEEF DINNER — Stouffville United Church is holding its Anniversary Roast Beef Dinner, Sunday, Nov. 25, with sittings at 4:45 and 6:15 p.m. Tickets are $7 adult; $2.50 children six to twelve years; children under six free. They're available at the following places: George Ross Photography; Birkett-Hassard Insurance; Card's Hardware; Widdifield Drugs; Chas. Richards and Sons and the United Church Office.

IMPROVING AFTER ACCIDENT — Mrs. Frank Vanstone, Bethesda Sideroad, R.R. 4, Stouffville, is making steady improvement following the tragic accident in Markham, last month, that took the life of her husband. Mrs. Vanstone was badly shaken up by the impact, but was released from hospital after only a few hours. The collision occurred on Hwy. 7, west of Hwy. 48.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP — The Stouffville Men's Fellowship will meet Monday, Nov. 12 in the Stouffville Baptist Church with dinner at 6:30 p.m.

BUTTERMAKERS' DANCE — The Stouffville Buttermakers are holding a dance this Saturday, (Nov. 10) from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m., in the Legion Hall. Admission is $15 a couple including buffet.

GIANT JACK-O-LANTERN — While no one attempted to lift it onto a scale to verify its weight, all agreed it was one BIG jack-o-lantern on the front porch of the Jackson family home, 188 Main Street West. It was grown on the Gordon McKay farm, Hwy. 48 and transported to town in Art Grove's truck and moved to its 'resting place' by wheelbarrow. Glenn Jackson was the master pumpkin-carver, assisted by Glenn Jr., 12 and Christine, eight. "Actually, there were heavier ones," Doris Jackson told The Tribune. Those in charge of the 'moving operation' agreed this one was heavy enough.

SUFFERS BACK INJURY — Jim Holt, The Tribune's sports editor, suffered a painful back injury, last Wednesday. There's no certainty when he'll be able to cover the sports beat again since recovery could take several weeks.

SHARE BIRTHDAY CAKE — Danny McNeil of the Stouffville Credit Union Peewees, celebrated his 12th birthday, Friday, in a big way. He scored the first of his team's seven goals against Lindsay, then shared a cake in the dressing room following the contest. Danny is the son of Bob and Sheila McNeil, Edward Street, Stouffville.

LIONS CLEAR $3,100 — The Stouffville Lions Club report a profit of close to $3,100 on the operation of their food booth at Markham Fair.

COMMUNITY BALL ASSOCIATION — With winter just around the corner, it's difficult to believe the Whitechurch-Stouffville Community Ball Association is making plans for the summer of '85. A meeting of all league reps has been called for Thursday (to-morrow night) at the Parks and Recreation Office on Market Street. The time is 7:30 p.m.

HONORED ON RETIREMENT — The Ballantrae Seniors enjoyed a turkey supper, Oct. 29, at the Community Centre. A special gift was presented to Clara Wideman on her announced retirement. Allan and Ann Wideman showed slides related to their work in Papua, New Guinea.

VISITS FRIENDS HERE — John Woodbine, formerly of Stouffville and now living at Sutton, called on friends here Wednesday. Mr. Woodbine is residing in a senior citizens' apartment and enjoying it. He describes Sutton as "a beautiful place with no dogs and very few cats (running at large). On several occasions he's run into Fred and Marion Castle, also former Stouffville folk.

NEW SOCCER MEETING DATE — The Whitechurch-Stouffville Soccer Club meeting, planned for Thurs., Nov. 7 in Latham Gallery, (Town Library), has been postponed to Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. Players 16 and over, parents of registered players, referees, coaches and managers are invited.

ANGLICAN CHURCH BAZAAR — The annual Christmas Bazaar of Christ Church (Anglican) is Sat., Nov. 17 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., in the Parish Hall, 254 Sunset Boulevard. A junior bazaar is planned for the children.

Variety Show to continue

STOUFFVILLE — The show will go on! Variety Show '85, sponsored by the students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, with the help of several teachers, is planned for the spring. Exact dates have not been announced. The producer is Leslie Stronach. The director is Charmaine Lintner, both students in Grade 12. "We were getting a little worried," Leslie told The Tribune. She said that while there's plenty of talent in the school, it takes many weeks of hard work to get it all together. Leslie and Charmaine are hoping to include several 'new things' in the show including drama. Originally, the event was held just before Christmas. Last year, the date was early March.

FOOD, GLORIOUS FOOD

On the Rhapsody, the art of fine dining is expressed through an "international" menu — with French specialties. Dinner might be coquille St. Jacques or escargots followed by stuffed lobster or prime rib of Kansas City beef and a rainbow flambé or flaming baked Alaska. Nouvelle cuisine may also be a feature of the menu; another evening, Mexican specialties; & something very Caribbean (& very delicious!) on another.

The cuisine is made from a most impressive list of ingredients available on board for each 7-day cruise, including 1000 whole lobsters, 1500 additional lobster tails, 15,000 lbs. of prime beef, 200 lbs. of pheasant & 300 lbs. of frogs legs! Each cruise also has on board 100 lbs. of black caviar & 500 lbs. of escargots. And also on board are 500 bottles of champagne — plus close to 30,000 bottles of other libations!
