

Lieut. Governor guest of honor at opening of Anglican Church

Lieut. Governor John Black Aird was a guest of honor at the official opening, Sunday, of the new Christ Church (Anglican), Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville. Here he signs the register prior to entering the sanctuary.

Tom Wood, (right), Mayor of Whitchurch-Stouffville, attended Sunday's service and later brought greetings on behalf of the municipality. He presented the rector, Rev. Philip Poole with a Town Crest that will hang in the minister's study.

An engraved plaque was presented to Rev. Poole by York North MPP Bill Hodgson on behalf of Premier Wm. Davis. It is admired here by Jim Green, (left), the rector's warden and Peter Parent.

Editor's Mail

A special day

Dear Jim:

Sunday, Oct. 4 was a very special day in our community.

At the morning service, in Christ Church Anglican, Whitchurch-Stouffville, a new addition was acknowledged.

The sanctuary is beautiful, a credit to all associated with the church and a real credit to our Town.

In life, there are assets and liabilities. Rev. Philip Poole is truly an asset to this Town. It has been an honor and a privilege to know and work with Rev. Poole. He loves God! He loves people! He exercises this enthusiasm throughout the year in our community.

He loves to work hard. He's involved.

He has never been afraid of controversy. He meets difficulties head-on. I'm sure there have been times this strength of character has caused great turmoil!

I am proud to live in a Town with so many churches, and so many people who love God. I trust Rev. Chris Sorley of Bloomington Christian Gospel Church will forgive my absence this past Sunday.

The Town is growing. The churches are growing. This speaks well for the future and quality of life in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Respectfully,
Fran Sainsbury,
R.R. 2, Stouffville

One of the most pleased and proudest participants in Sunday's service was the congregation's rector, Rev. Philip Poole. He later praised the faith and foresight of the congregation that made the $380,000 project possible.
—Jim Thomas

Special music at Sunday's service was provided by the church choir, under the direction of Jim Rehill. Here, Mr Rehill talks with Lieut. Governor John Black Aird in the reception line following the worship.