MacEwen leads way

Uxbridge Bruins rebounded from a 7-4 loss at the hands of Little Britain Merchants Friday to post their most convincing effort of the season in Bomanville

Sunday night. Paul MacEwen scored two goals and assisted on . another to pace Uxbridge to a 6-4 win over the defending league champions, Bowmanville Eagles.

That victory brought the Bruin win-loss record to 2-6 after the first eight games of the Central Ontario Junior C Hockey League campaign.

While Uxbridge is battling with Cobourg Cougars for the bottom two positions in the eight-team loop, Bruin coach Wayne Redshaw feels it's simply a matter of time until his club makes a move.

"If we ever start to score, watch out!" coach Redshaw commented Friday, follow-Bruins outshot their opposition 43-29 but still lost.

"It isn't from a lack of unassisted.

trying that they're losing," he added.

And the coach's optimistic forecast began to come true Sunday as his players found the scoring touch that was lacking in past encoun-

MacEwen's big game against Bomanville was supplemented by a goal and two assists off the stick of Bruin veteran Scott Harper. His tally was unassisted.

Other goals came from Todd Laroche, Sean Convery and Shane Campsall. Laroche also had two assists and Cliff Freckelton

Troy Bates came up with a strong performance in the Uxbridge goal.

Scoring for the Bruins in Friday's loss to Little Britain were Freckleton, assisted by Henry Van Kessell (shorthanded); Brian Steward from Laroche ing a game in which the (powerplay); Laroche, assisted by Steward and Campsall; and Lee Brown,

Skatercize provides good exercise

Great exercise and good fellowship. That's what Skatercize is all about. The program's available at the Uxbridge Community Centre every Tuesday and Thursday morning from 9 to 10 a.m. New members are welcome.

"It's great fun," Cheryl Leask told The Tribune, "there's no age limit."

Cheryl said one of the participants is in her sixties.

At present, about fifteen ladies belong. Babysitting's provided.

The season's Skatercize program began Oct. 16. However, there are still 37 days left.

The Skatercize pro is Michael Sanderson.

Umpire says 'thank you'

Just a short note to say 'thank you' for the article in The Tribune under the heading "Strike three, you're out!" Various people I've spoken with, remarked on how well it was worded and the clarity of the photo. I agree with them.

I would like to think that through your story, ball players, men and women, will look at we umpires a little differently.

Sorry for the delay. As you can tell, I'm not one who writes a lot.

Sincerely, Lynn Catherwood, Uxbridge

Stouffville Novices earn last-minute tie

With thirty seconds to play, Novice captain Geoff Smith turned an anticipated loss into an unexpected tie.

The hard-working team leader fired a low shot past Danny Stewart in the Port Hope net, Friday, to give Stouffville a 1-1 tie. Sean Morrison picked up an assist.

The Stouffville team, sponsored by Neil Patrick Motors, was full value for the tie. They had a wide territorial advantage but Port the Stouffville net blocked celled up front.

turned aside eight.

Port Hope's Michael Jackson opened the scoring at 4:25 of the second period. It appeared likely this tally would be the winner until Smith completed a cyclonic rush down right wing and beat the Port Hope puckstopper cleanly.

Geoff Smith's fine twoway performance highlighted the contest. He was as strong in his own end of the rink as on the Port Hope side of the blueline. David Hope had the best close-in Mountjoy, Coulter Carconi shots. Dayne Vanderligt in and John McKinnon also ex-

Peewees called 'the best town team in years'

They may be only 11 and 12-year-olds, but spectators watching the Stouffville Credit Union Peewees, call them "the best town team in years."

Their coach is Gary Fraser. The manager is Doug Wilson and the trainer is Glenn Whitebread.

On Friday, Credit Union chalked up another victory, blanking Lindsay 7-0. Basil Luciano racked up the shut-Drae Glover led the home team offensive with two goals and one assist. Singles came from the sticks of Danny McNeil, Dayle Lewis, Jamie Campbell, Rob McClure and Jason Underwood. Bill Payne collected three assists. Other passing points were picked up by Lee Scaife, Jason Underwood, Guy Biade, Anand Date, Keith Piette and Jamie Campbell.

Stouffville's next regular home game is Nov. 16 against Uxbridge. On Nov. 23, they host Cobourg. This contest has all the makings of real thriller since Stouffville lost to this team 6-2 in a previous contest.

An exhibition game is scheduled for this Friday. Starting time is 8 p.m.

The club, led by captain Underwood, has an offensive game plan that works with precision. About half the team played Peewee last season. The remainder are new recruits. The addition of Anand Date and Todd Balazs has strengthened the squad, Coach Fraser said.

Others in the lineup include-Danny Wilson, Rob Mountjoy, Brad Blacktopp and Greg Frederick.

Juveniles take first

Four victories and two defeats have vaulted the Stouffville Juveniles into first place in the Lakeshore Hockey League.

The team's most impressive win occurred Monday when they downed Uxbridge 4-2. It was the first loss of the season for the Uxbridge squad. Stouffville dressed only nine players compared to sixteen for their rivals.

John Parcels led the Stouffville offensive with two goals, including the game winner. He also picked up an assist.
