AROUND TOWN

EUCHRE TOURNAMENT
 A six-handed euchre tournament will be held on Wed., Nov. 21 beginning at 1:30 p.m., in the Silver Jubilee Club. Admission is fifty cents. Refreshments will be served.

RENEW FRIENDSHIPS
 Fred and Marion Castle, formerly of Stouffville and now of Sutton, renewed friendships here on the weekend. Marion assisted at the Legion Ladies Auxiliary Bazaar, Saturday, and both Fred and Marion attended the Remembrance Day Service in the Legion Hall, Sunday afternoon. Also back among friends, Friday evening was Jerry Waite, now living at Coldwater. Jerry, a former teacher on the staff at S.D.S.S., presented the Geography Award given in his name at Commencement Exercises. Recipient of the prize was Chris Ferguson.

PLAN DINNER-DANCE
 The Chamber of Commerce is holding a dinner and dance, Sat., Nov. 17 at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club. Time of the event is 7 p.m. Tickets are available at Stonehouse Travel, Main Street West, Stouffville.

HAND-MADE QUILT DRAW
 A draw on a beautiful 84" x 104" triple rose pattern quilt, completed by the A.C.W. Craft Guild, will be made at the Christ Church Anglican bazaar, Sat., Nov. 17 at 3 p.m. Tickets are still available at one dollar apiece.

SOCCER MEETING
 The Whitchurch-Stouffville Soccer Club meeting, planned for Thurs., Nov. 7 in Latham Gallery, (Town Library), has been postponed to Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. Players 16 and over, parents of registered players, referees, coaches and managers are invited.

ANGLICAN CHURCH BAZAAR
 The annual Christmas Bazaar of Christ Church (Anglican) is Sat., Nov. 17 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., in the Parish Hall, 254 Sunset Boulevard. A junior bazaar is planned for the children.

ROAST BEEF DINNER
 Stouffville United Church is holding its Anniversary Roast Beef Dinner, Sunday, Nov. 25, with sittings at 4:45 and 6:15 p.m. Tickets are $7 adult; $2.50 children six to twelve years; children under six free. They're available at the following places: George Ross Photography; Birkett-Hassard Insurance; Card's Hardware; Widdifield Drugs; Chas. Richards and Sons and the United Church Office.

AUCTION AT BETHESDA
 Norm and Phil Faulkner will conduct an auction sale, Sat., Nov. 24 on the property of Roy and Marjorie Smith, Bethesda, beginning at 11 a.m. Items include a refrigerator, electric stove, a washer, television, a 100-year-old pine cupboard, a blanket box, an antique high-wheeled bike, a large quantity of lawn and garden tools and many other items. Mr and Mrs Smith have sold their Bethesda home. They plan to take up residence in Dublin Apartments, Markham.

MARKS 94TH BIRTHDAY
 The town extends congratulations to Mrs Elizabeth Johnston, Second Street, Stouffville, on the occasion of her 94th birthday, Saturday. Mrs Johnston assisted the Legion Ladies Auxiliary in preparing their bazaar, Friday evening. Later, she was at a surprise birthday party in the hall.

SUCCESSFUL SURGERY
 Eva Spiece of Altona hopes to be back behind the counter at Aiken's Pharmacy, Wednesday, (today), following surgery on her right wrist and hand. Mrs Spiece was a patient in Scarborough General Hospital four days. She describes the treatment she received there as "fantastic". On her return, she was pleased to receive a visit from her cousin, Barbara Conklin, a resident of Phoenix, Arizona. Barbara travelled here to help out during Eva's period of convalescence. She returned home Saturday.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY
 The Stouffville Horticultural Society is holding a pot-luck supper, Monday, Nov. 19 at 6 p.m., in the United Church. The election of officers for 1985 will follow and prize money will be distributed.

THE TORCHMEN QUARTET
 An evening of gospel music will be presented by The Torchmen Quartet of St. Catherines, Sat., Nov. 17 at 7:30 p.m., in the Stouffville Baptist Church.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB
 The Friendship Club will meet Thursday evening, (to-night), Nov. 15 in the Legion Hall at 8 p.m. Senior citizens in the area are welcome. Those requiring transportation are asked to call 640-2443.

HOLD CAREER DAY
 Bruce Johnston, head of the Guidance Department at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, organized a very successful Career Day at S.D.S.S., Thursday. Former students taking part included: Ted Power, (actor); Rocco Rea, (auto mechanic); Kelly Parke, (broadcaster); Blair Bangay, (carpenter-contractor); Mike Von Zuben, (computer programmer); Julie Hall, (esthetician); Eric Button, (lawyer); Bill Sanders, (elementary teacher); Colleen Kamps, (child care worker); and Lori Dart, (secretary).

Special services
BLOOMINGTON - The congregation of Bloomington Christian Gospel Church will celebrate their 151st anniversary this Sunday, (Nov. 18).
 Worship times are 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The guest speaker is Rev. John Dempster of London, Ont., former president of the Association of Gospel Churches.
 Special music for the occasion will be provided by The Viscounts, a talented group of Christians, dedicated to spreading the gospel message through song. Members include: Terry Whitfield, Carol and Myrna Long, Jim Wagg, Ken Holman, Jim Duross and Floyd Kelly. The Viscounts will attend both morning and evening services.

Married fifty years

Mr. and Mrs. George Windsor of South Lake Road, Musselman's Lake, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Saturday evening with a gathering of family relatives and friends in the Ballantrae Community Centre. Mr and Mrs Windsor have one son, Bill, of Newmarket and three grandchildren, Bill, Karen and Kenny. Mrs Windsor has four brothers, Ivan of Lindsay, Norman, Nestleton, Ted, Cannington, Gordon, Spruce Grove, Alberta and two sisters, Bernice at Collingwood and Joyce of Bowmanville. Mr Windsor has two sisters, Maude in Toronto and Della of Newmarket. — Jim Thomas

SIX-HANDED EUCHRE
 A six-handed euchre tournament is planned for the Silver Jubilee Club, Wed., Nov. 21 beginning at 1:30 p.m.

HOST PIANO RECITAL
 Wayne and Anita Cheng, Thicketwood Boulevard, Stouffville, will host a piano recital, Monday, Nov. 26 in Stouffville United Church to include more than 50 students of Doris Taylor, Tindale Road. Time of the concert is 7 p.m. Admission is free.

IN NEWMARKET HOSPITAL
 Mrs. Ada Gray, Mill Street, Stouffville, is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket, after collapsing at the Stouffville Legion Hall, Friday night. The many friends of Mrs Gray wish her a complete recovery.

SURGERY NOT REQUIRED
 Ken Marshall, son of Tom and Margot Marshall, R.R. 1, Cedar Valley, suffered a painful injury in a soccer match, recently, while playing for Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida. Initially, it was thought he might have to undergo surgery due to ligament damage in his right knee, but this was later ruled unnecessary. Mr Marshall was a spectator at the game. Mrs Marshall flew down later on learning of the accident. Margot is the representative for Ward 1 on Whitchurch-Stouffville Council.

BAZAAR LUCKY DRAWS
 Lucky draw winners at the Legion Ladies Bazaar, Saturday were: Grocery Hampers-Stan Schmidt, Stouffville; Mae Symes, Stouffville and Sonya Thomas of Guelph. Winner of the cake was Pat Appleton of Stouffville.

Beautiful harmony

By Kathleen May
 The program, Nov. 3, provided by the Fun Strummers of Toronto, proved a real treat for members of the Silver Jubilee Club. The group included fourteen guitar players and a mandolin. The harmony was beautiful.
 The audience was estimated at 65 persons, considerably less than expected.
 There may be those who miss out on these fun events because they do not have transportation. If you have a telephone and a car, this problem could be solved. Many special evenings are planned in the future. Program organizers would like to see a full house.

Offer Congratulations
 The Club wishes to extend congratulations to several in town for exceptional accomplishments including: Eleanor Crossen, Edna Mashinter and Maude Erwin, Provincial Seniors Lawn-Bowling Champions; Don Anderson of Stuart Street for raising $2,730.00 for cancer research through participation in the Terry Fox Run and to Floyd Forsyth for winning the Provincial Plowing Title. Floyd will advance to the World Match next fall.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION
 Father Ted Colleton will attend a Day of Spiritual Renewal for all ladies of the community at St. Mark's Church, Stouffville, Sat., Nov. 17 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. This program is being sponsored by the Daughters of Mary Guild. Ladies are asked to bring lunch with dessert and coffee breaks provided.

GUEST SPEAKER
 Mac Cosburn, Chairman of the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Board, will address the annual dinner-meeting of the Stouffville District Credit Union Ltd., Monday, Nov. 26. Time of the dinner is 6:30 p.m., with the meeting at eight.

THE GOLDEN GIRLS
 A group of senior ladies, calling themselves "The Golden Girls", were guests of Rev. Herb Gale and his southern hospitality at the St. James Presbyterian Church, Wednesday. In attendance were: Dorothy Middleton, Margery Holden, Louise Marlatt, Jessie Buchanan, Jean White, Florence Ross and Una Dundas. Rev. Gale, a native of Charlotte, North Carolina, served dinner "down home style" including a casserole of broccoli with cream cheese sauce, green beans and bacon and of course—peanuts. Following lunch, the ladies sang several of their favorite hymns accompanied by their host on the guitar.

OUR MPP WAS HERE
 Due to the inclement weather, the entire Remembrance Day service was conducted Sunday afternoon in the Stouffville Legion Hall, including the laying of wreaths. The change in plans caught York North MPP Wm. Hodgson off guard. He had come straight from his home in Kettleby to the cenotaph in the Town Square. In his absence, Ross Hetherington of Stouffville filled in. Later, Mr Hodgson joined Legion and Legion Auxiliary members at the hall after he was told the parade had been cancelled.
