In Memoriam 665

EAGAN - In loving memory of my husband James who passed away Nov. 19, 1982. I remember the day I met you And the day God made you mine, I remember the day I lost you I will till the end of time. After all the sorrow and heartache There is one thing that makes me glad. You chose me to share with you All the happy years we had. We made our vows together Until death doeth part. But the day you were taken from me My whole world fell apart. I think of you today with love As I have often done. I feel again the bitter blow That never should have come. Sometimes I think I'm dreaming For I can't believe it's true. That I go on living When I no longer have you. Forever in my thoughts, wife Betty.

GRIFFITH, Janet aged 70 in loving memory of a dear aunt Jane who passed away Sept. 12, 1980 and Uncle Tom, Nov. 27, 1982. SMITH, Stuart - In loving memory of our dear son and brother who passed away Nov. 24, 1981. To us he was someone special We miss him more each day. For the saddest day in all our lives Was the day he passed away. We think of him in silence And often speak his name. For all we have are wonderful memories And his picture in a frame. To your resting place we visit And put flowers there with care But no one knows the heartache When we turn and leave you there. Always remembered and dearly loved by Mom and sister Mary.

AND IN THIS CORNER...

A defenseless child. One of the thousands of children in our province subjected every day to perhaps the most brutal of all crimes - child abuse.
But more importantly, we all have a moral duty to report suspicions of child abuse. A responsibility we all share - to ensure that every young person in Ontario enjoys a childhood free from neglect or abuse.
Professionals, working with or treating young people, have a legal duty to report suspected cases of child abuse to their local Children's Aid Society or Family and Children's Services.
Give a kid a fighting chance. Report child abuse.
