AROUND TOWN

PLAN CHRISTMAS AUCTION

The Grade 8 students of Summitview Public School are holding an auction of toys and crafts on Monday, Dec. 10. Items will include records, books, decorations and of course, toys and crafts. Terri Surman of Terri's House of Auctions, will be calling the bids. All donations must be in before Friday, Dec. 7.

CNIB MOVES OFFICES

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind is moving its York-Durham Office to a new Markham location, Dec. 3. As of this date, the address will be 70-A Main Street North, (L3P 1X5). The telephone number will be 294-5752.

POST PARADE CONCERT

Following the Santa Claus Parade Saturday, adults and children are invited to the Silver Jubilee Club, (Main and Market Streets, Stouffville), for a snack and refreshments, compliments of McNeil Laboratories. A concert is also planned for the enjoyment of guests.

PARKVIEW CRAFT SALE

Parkview Home is hosting a Christmas Tea and Craft Sale, Monday, Dec. 3 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

CHRISTMAS TOY AUCTION

An auction sale of Christmas toys and gifts will be held Wed., (to-night), Nov. 28 at the Stouffville Sales Barn beginning at 6 p.m. Included in the auction will be a dozen Cabbage Patch Kids.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS

Talented artist, Mr. Gerhardt Otto, will host an exhibition of his finest paintings, Sat., Dec. 1 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., at his residence on the Aurora Sideroad, between Hwy. 48 and the 9th Concession. For further information call 640-1807.

JUBILEE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Silver Jubilee Club will hold its annual Christmas Concert, Tues., Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. The program will feature the 45-voice Amadeus Choir, an event members won't want to miss.

"DOWN MEMORY LANE"

Jean Hammond, Marj Duxbury and David Cadogan will combine their talents to provide an evening of music entitled "Down Memory Lane", at Christ Church, Stouffville, Wed., Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. Tickets ($3.00) are available at the office of Christ Church, Barthau's Jewellers or from Jean Hammond, (640-2265). Proceeds from the event will go to the Christ Church Building Fund.

CHRISTMAS DINNER-DANCE

The Unionville Jr. Farmer "Re-Runs" are holding their annual Christmas Dinner-Dance, Saturday, Dec. 18 beginning at 6:30 p.m., in the Stouffville Masonic Hall, Ninth Line North and Second Street. Admission (by advance ticket sales only) is $10 per person. This includes a hot buffet. Tickets are available by calling 640-5463 or 640-4361.

"TRAVESTY OF JUSTICE"

Members in the congregation of Stouffville Missionary Church are being asked to write The Hon. Roy McMurtry, Attorney General of Canada and address their concerns related to the acquittal of Dr. Henry Morgentaler and the likelihood of re-establishing an abortion clinic in Toronto. The appeal reads in part: "As Christians, we should be extremely concerned that tiny babies, formed in the Image of God, have no legal rights and no right to life in this society. It is only through concerned, dedicated persons, that any of this will be changed. You can do your part by writing a letter and thus expressing your concerns and feelings."

TRIP TO CULLEN GARDENS

The Stouffville Missionary Church is inviting its senior citizens to enjoy a bus trip to Cullen Gardens, Nov. 29, for the annual Christmas Festival of Lights. Seniors are to meet at the church at 4 p.m. The cost is $7.00 and this includes bus fare and admission. Those wishing to go are asked to contact Rev. Douglas Gray at 640-2413 as soon as possible.

FAMILY GATHERING

Thirty-two members of the Warren Rae family, met Nov. 28 in the Friendship Room of Parkview Home to celebrate Mr. Rae's 79th birthday. A pot-luck dinner and birthday cake was enjoyed by everyone.

Married in St. Catharines

Mr and Mrs Calvin Knights are pictured here following their marriage, June 30, 1984, in Grace Mennonite Church, St. Catharines. The bride is the former Wanda Dyck, daughter of Peter and Mary Dyck, St. Catharines. The groom is the son of Harold and Elda Knights, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville. Calvin and Wanda enjoyed a five week honeymoon in Europe. The happy couple are now living in Stouffville.

AROUND TOWN

ELEGANT COUNTRY PARTY

Latham Gallery, (Public Library), hosts its third annual Elegant Country Party, Saturday evening, (Dec. 1), beginning at 8:30 p.m. The program will feature musical entertainment, a "tired art" auction, a sale of miniatures, professional storytelling and refreshments. Tickets are $8 single; $16 a couple.

AT CRISTAL LAKE

Charles and Lois Gingerich, (nee James), have been teaching at Cristal Lake School, located in a very remote area of Northern Ontario, about 70 miles north of Pickle Lake. This is a Christian Secondary School for Indian girls, operated by Northern Youth Programs, a Mennonite mission with headquarters at Dryden, Ont.

AUCTIONEER ON TV

Auctioneer Terri Surman and Terri's House of Auctions, Stouffville, will be featured on Global's Pizzazz Show, Thursday, Nov. 29. The filming was completed Aug. 16.

EXCEPTIONAL SALE

An exceptional sale of antiques and collectables has been lined up for Terri's House of Auctions, (rear of The Steurburger), Main Street West, Stouffville, for Thurs., Dec. 6, including an 1860 pine dresser, a pine harvest table, and many other excellent items. A complete list will be published in The Tribune issue of Dec. 5.

LOVELY WEDDING

The bride was as lovely as the day when Cheryl Simpson, daughter of Mr and Mrs Harry Simpson, R.R. 3, Stouffville was married to Blaine Hockley R.R. 1, Claremont, Nov. 24, in Baker Hill Baptist Church. The happy couple will reside at Ajax.

ENJOYABLE FAMILY REUNION

Mrs Alice Rowan was honored at a family birthday gathering, Nov. 10, held at Temple Baptist Church, Cambridge. Besides her husband Norman, others in attendance included three daughters and three sons-in-law; 11 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; four grandsons-in-law and three granddaughters-in-law along with many close friends. Following dinner, a gospel program was enjoyed.

AMBASSADOR FOR CANADA

Where is Ian Harris? That's what people keep asking ever since he left on his round-the-world trip, Oct. 10. Stouffville's long-distance traveller is currently at Cairns, the Great Barrier Reef, Australia and headed down the coast to Sydney. After hitch-hiking to Melbourne, he continued on to Adelaide and then rode in a transport truck, 1,200 miles across the desert to Perth. At Port Hedland, he stayed with the family of Barry MacKay, (Reg MacKay's son and daughter-in-law), and then on to Darwin, Alice Springs and Cuhen. He called home from Cuhen, Thursday. In February, he plans to visit New Zealand. Ian leaves no doubt about where he's from since his clothing's covered with Canadian flags. Wherever he goes, people gather around wanting to talk and enquiring if he needs a ride. Ian is the son of Ivan and Gayle Harris, 194 Main Street West.

VICTORIAN CHRISTMAS TEA

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum volunteers will host their annual Victorian Christmas Tea and Bake Sale, Thurs., Dec. 6 from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Melissa Lynn Hancock was received into the fellowship of St. James Presbyterian Church through Sacrament of Baptism, Sunday, with Rev. Herb Gale in charge. Melissa is the daughter of Eric and Wendy Hancock, Tindale Road, Stouffville.

STEADILY IMPROVING

Although still receiving therapy treatment in Riverdale Hospital, Toronto, Mrs Ken Laushway is allowed to come home on weekends and is showing steady improvement. Mrs Laushway suffered a serious head injury several months ago when she fell while watering a hanging plant at the front of her Park Drive house.

RENEW ACQUAINTANCES

Charles and Innis Nolan, Duchess Street, Stouffville, accompanied by John and Ula Williamson, Elm Street, Markham, enjoyed a visit, Monday, with Frank and Marion Robb of Lindsay and formerly of Markham.

Generosity

CLAREMONT — Claremont United Church, Parkview Home, (Stouffville), and the Markham-Stouffville Hospital Building Fund are all beneficiaries of $10,000 donations each, thanks to the generosity of the late Clara (Mrs Frank) Carson, R.R. 2, Claremont.

Mrs Carson died July 14, 1984. In her will, she asked the funds, $30,000 in total, be directed to the above-named sources.

Parking ban

STOUFFVILLE — To facilitate the plowing of snow on streets and roadways in the Stouffville area, the Town has passed a bylaw related to winter parking.

During the months of December, January, February and March, no vehicle shall be left on any street between the hours of 2 and 5 a.m.

The bylaw will be enforced by the York Regional Police Department.

Through The Tribune, the Town is asking motorists' co-operation.

Adult skating

STOUFFVILLE — Adult pleasure skating, for persons 25 years and over, will be held in the Stouffville Arena, this Sunday, (Dec. 2), from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Admission is $2.50.

Band concert

STOUFFVILLE — The Whitchurch-Stouffville Concert Band is holding its annual "Christmas Festival", Fri., Dec. 7 at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

The concert, a highlight of the Christmas season here, will feature the Junior Choir of the Stouffville Christian School. Time of the program is 7:30 p.m. Admission is three dollars.

Honored at 4-H program

Two area girls, now attending Nancy Darling, (left), Loretta Guelph University, received Advanced Honors Diplomas, Wednesday at a York Region 4-H Awards Night in the Newmarket Community Centre.

For several years, Reesor's Mar-mill Limited of Markham, has been donating an engraved silver tray to the Most Improved 4-H Member from the Markham Dairy Club. The recipient of this award Wednesday night was 15-year-old Leanne Brown, R.R. 1, Unionville. The presentation was made by Don Reesor, company president. —Jim Thomas
