Four Markham and Unionville skaters have passed through rigorous testing and qualified for the upcoming Eastern Canadian Figure Skating Championships. Representing the Markham Figure Skating Club in the Novice Men's category will be Darcy Guddat. He qualified by grabbing third spot last weekend's Central Ontario Sectional Competition (COSC) in Orangeville. Suzanne Craig from the Unionville Figure Skating Club and Upper Canada Skating Club partner Darren Carter are also on their way to the Eastern Canadian meet. They earned a second at the COSC. Markham's Pamela Collier—representing the Toronto Cricket Club—qualified for the event with a fourth-place finish (out of 12 skaters) in the COSC's Junior Ladies division. Julie Wilson, Sharon Fish, Jodi Adams, Terrill Wilkie and Cydele Knobs all competed for Unionville in a COSC Pre-Novice run-off. Wilson was first in both her flight and the final, and skated in the COSC final last weekend. Fish and Adams finished third overall, and both skated in the COSC final. Jaci Clevely, Stephanie and Stacey Given, and Jennifer Melvin all competed for the club in the sectionals. Unionville's Bill Downs teamed up with Oshawa's Tania Ninacs to compete in the Eastern Ontario sectional's Novice dance final. At a Keswick meet, Unionville's Joanne Calderone grabbed second in her final.
